1           Senate Amendment to Amendment (955216) (with title
2 amendment)

3
4           Between lines 236 and 237
5 insert:

6           Section 5. Paragraph (d) is added to subsection (2) of 7 section 316.006, Florida Statutes, to read:

8           316.006 Jurisdiction.—Jurisdiction to control traffic is 9 vested as follows:

10           (2) MUNICIPALITIES.—

11           (d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the 12 contrary, at the request of a municipality with a population

13 density of at least 10,000 persons per square mile, the 14 Department of Transportation shall, by interlocal agreement,
15 transfer traffic regulatory authority over state roads within 16 the municipality to the municipality. Traffic regulatory 17 authority includes, but is not limited to, street design, street
18 cleaning, landscaping, maintenance, and speed regulation and 19 controls. This paragraph does not apply to any agency or 20 authority created by chapter 348.

21
22 This subsection shall not limit those counties which have the 23 charter powers to provide and regulate arterial, toll, and other
24 roads, bridges, tunnels, and related facilities from the proper
25 exercise of those powers by the placement and maintenance of 26 traffic control devices which conform to the manual and
27 specifications of the Department of Transportation on streets
28 and highways located within municipal boundaries.
