Representative Caldwell offered the following:

Amendment to Amendment (797637) (with title amendment)

Between lines 167 and 168, insert:

Section 5. Notwithstanding any provision of law, the district school board of a county with a population of more than 600,000 residents that currently has five school board members may submit to the qualified electors of the county in a general election a proposition to increase the number of school board members by two members. Before submitting the proposition to the electors, the school board must adopt a plan of apportionment for the school board, which must be included as part of the referendum ballot statement. If the proposition is approved by a majority of the qualified electors voting on such proposition, the school board shall establish the school board membership
