14 NOTICE: Under Florida law, e-mail addresses are public
15 records. By consenting to communicate with this office
16 electronically, your e-mail address will be released
17 in response to any applicable public records request.

18
19 (c) Before sending a document electronically, the sender
20 verifies the recipient's address by sending an electronic
21 transmission to the recipient and receiving an affirmative
22 response from the recipient verifying that the recipient's
23 address is correct.

24 (d) If a document is returned as undeliverable, the sender
25 sends the document by regular mail, as required by law.

26 (e) Documents sent pursuant to this section comply with the 27 same timing and form requirements as if the documents were sent 28 by regular mail.

29 (f) The sender renews the consent and verification
30 requirements every 5 years.
