I. Summary:

CS/SB 4 is a public records and meetings bill linked to SB 2, which, in part, authorizes specified public officers to refer cases of possible ethics violations to the Florida Commission on Ethics (state commission). This bill adds to existing public records and meetings exemptions related to complaints of possible ethics violations received by the state commission.

This bill creates a temporary public records exemption for:

- Written referrals of possible ethics violations and records relating to such referrals that are held by the state commission, its agents, or a public officer authorized to make such a referral; and
- Records relating to any preliminary investigation of such referrals that are held by the state commission or its agents.

This bill also creates a temporary public meetings exemption for any portion of a proceeding of the state commission in which a determination regarding a referral is discussed or acted upon. The bill subjects the newly created public records and meetings exemptions to the conditions upon which the existing public records and meetings exemptions expire and adds a new condition.

The bill clarifies that the existing public meetings exemption for any proceeding conducted by the state commission or a local government pursuant to a complaint or preliminary investigation is limited to those portions of proceedings that are conducted pursuant to a complaint or preliminary investigation.

This bill extends the existing Open Government Sunset Review repeal date from October 2, 2015, to October 2, 2018. It provides a public necessity statement as required by the Florida Constitution.

Because this bill creates new public records and meetings exemptions, it requires a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting in each house for passage.

This bill substantially amends section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

II. Present Situation:

Public Records and Meetings Requirements

The Florida Constitution specifies requirements for public access to government records and meetings. It provides every person the right to inspect or copy any public record made or received in connection with the official business of any public body, officer, or employee of the state, or of persons acting on their behalf.¹ The records of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches are specifically included.² The Florida Constitution also requires all meetings of any collegial public body of the executive branch of state government or of any local government, at which official acts are to be taken or at which public business of such body is to be transacted or discussed, to be open and noticed to the public.³

In addition to the Florida Constitution, the Florida Statutes specify conditions under which public access must be provided to government records and meetings. The Public Records Act⁴ guarantees every person's right to inspect and copy any state or local government public record⁵ at any reasonable time, under reasonable conditions, and under supervision by the custodian of the public record.⁶ The Sunshine Law⁷ requires all meetings of any board or commission of any

⁴ Chapter 119, F.S.

⁵ Section 119.011(12), F.S., defines "public records" to mean "all documents, papers, letters, maps, books, tapes, photographs, films, sound recordings, data processing software, or other material, regardless of the physical form, characteristics, or means of transmission, made or received pursuant to law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business by any agency." Section 119.011(2), F.S., defines "agency" to mean as "any state, county, district, authority, or municipal officer, department, division, board, bureau, commission, or other separate unit of government created or established by law including, for the purposes of this chapter, the Commission on Ethics, the Public Service Commission, and the Office of Public Counsel, and any other public or private agency, person, partnership, corporation, or business entity acting on behalf of any public agency." The Public Records Act does not apply to legislative or judicial records (see Locke v. Hawkes, 595 So.2d 32 (Fla. 1992)).

state or local agency or authority at which official acts are to be taken to be noticed and open to the public.⁸

Only the Legislature may create an exemption to public records or public meetings requirements.⁹ Such an exemption must be created by general law and must specifically state the public necessity justifying the exemption.¹⁰ Further, the exemption must be no broader than necessary to accomplish the stated purpose of the law. A bill enacting an exemption may not contain other substantive provisions¹¹ and must pass by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting in each house of the Legislature.¹²

Exemptions are subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act,¹³ which prescribes a legislative review process for newly created or substantially amended public records or open meetings exemptions.¹⁴ It requires the automatic repeal of such exemption on October 2nd of the fifth year after creation or substantial amendment, unless the Legislature reenacts the exemption.¹⁵

Entities that may Investigate Possible Ethics Violations

The Florida Commission on Ethics (state commission) serves as a guardian of the standards of conduct for officers and employees of the state and its political subdivisions.¹⁶ It is an independent commission responsible for investigating and issuing public reports on complaints of breaches of the public trust¹⁷ by public officers and employees.¹⁸ The state commission must investigate sworn complaints of violation of the Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees (Code of Ethics)¹⁹ or of any other law over which it has jurisdiction.²⁰ It may only

⁸ Section 286.011(1)-(2), F.S. The Sunshine Law does not apply to the Legislature; rather, open meetings requirements for the Legislature are set out in Art. III, s. 4(e) of the Florida Constitution. That section requires the rules of procedure of each house to provide that:

- All legislative committee and subcommittee meetings of each house and of joint conference committee meetings must be open and noticed to the public; and
- All prearranged gatherings, between more than two members of the Legislature, or between the Governor, the President of the Senate, or the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the purpose of which is to agree upon or to take formal legislative action, must be reasonably open to the public.

¹³ Section 119.15, F.S.

¹⁴ Section 119.15, F.S. An exemption is substantially amended if the amendment expands the scope of the exemption to include more records or information or to include meetings as well as records (s. 119.15(4)(b), F.S.). The requirements of the Act do not apply to an exemption that is required by federal law or that applies solely to the Legislature or the State Court System (s. 119.15(2), F.S.).

¹⁶ See FLA. CONST. art. II, s. 8; and s. 112.320, F.S.

¹⁷ Section 112.312(3), F.S., defines “breach of the public trust” to mean a violation of a provision of the Florida Constitution or the Code of Ethics that establishes a standard of ethical conduct, a disclosure requirement, or a prohibition applicable to public officers or employees in order to avoid conflicts between public duties and private interests, including, without limitation, a violation of Art. II, s. 8 of the Florida Constitution, or of the Code of Ethics.

¹⁸ See FLA. CONST. art. II, s. 8

¹⁹ The Code of Ethics is comprised of part III of ch. 112, F.S.

initiate an ethics investigation if it receives such a sworn complaint.²¹ There is no process by which another public officer may refer a possible ethics violation.

Additionally, current law provides that the Code of Ethics does not prohibit the governing body of a political subdivision or an agency from imposing upon its own officers and employees additional or more stringent standards of conduct and disclosure requirements than those specified in the Code of Ethics, so long as those standards and requirements do not otherwise conflict with the Code of Ethics.²²

Neither the Florida Constitution nor the Code of Ethics specifically addresses the creation of a county or municipality “Commission on Ethics and Public Trust.” The existing public records and meetings exemptions relating to complaints and investigations of possible ethics violations, however, include such local commissions in the categories of entities to whom the exemptions apply.²³

Public Records and Meetings Exemptions Relating to Possible Ethics Violations

Current law provides that a complaint of an ethics violation or any records relating to the complaint or to any preliminary investigation that are held by the state commission, a local Commission on Ethics and Public Trust, or any county or municipality that has established a local investigatory process to enforce more stringent standards of conduct and disclosure requirements²⁴ are temporarily confidential and exempt²⁵ from public records requirements.²⁶

Current law also temporarily exempts any proceeding conducted pursuant to a complaint or preliminary investigation by the state commission, a local Commission on Ethics and Public Trust, or a county or municipality that has established such local investigatory process from public meetings requirements.²⁷

Both the public records and public meetings exemption expire when:

²⁰ Section 112.322(1), F.S. The state commission is authorized to enforce the following ethics laws: the Code of Ethics in ch. 112, F.S.; Art. II, s. 8 of the Florida Constitution; standards of conduct specific to members and employees of the Public Service Commission and to members of the Public Service Commission Nominating Council (s. 350.043, F.S.); standards governing the use of state motor vehicles or aircraft (s. 287.175, F.S.); and standards governing agency use of public funds to retain lobbyists (s. 11.062(2)(e), F.S.).

²¹ Section 112.324(1), F.S.

²² Section 112.326, F.S.

²³ Section 112.324(2)(a)-(c), F.S.

²⁴ Pursuant to s. 112.326, F.S.

²⁵ There is a difference between records the Legislature designates as exempt from public records requirements and those the Legislature designates confidential and exempt. A record classified as exempt from public disclosure may be disclosed under certain circumstances (see WFTV, Inc. v. The School Board of Seminole, 874 So.2d 48 (Fla. 5th DCA 2004), review denied 892 So.2d 1015 (Fla. 2004); City of Riviera Beach v. Barfield, 642 So.2d 1135 (Fla. 4th DCA 2004); and Williams v. City of Minneola, 575 So.2d 687 (Fla. 5th DCA 1991)). If the Legislature designates a record as confidential and exempt from public disclosure, such record may not be released, by the custodian of public records, to anyone other than the persons or entities specifically designated in the statutory exemption (see Attorney General Opinion 85-62, August 1, 1985).

²⁶ Section 112.324(2)(a), F.S. Such records are temporarily confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1), F.S., and constitutional public records requirements.

²⁷ Section 112.324(2)(b), F.S. Such proceedings are temporarily exempt from the Sunshine Law, constitutional public meetings requirements, and s. 120.525, F.S., which sets forth timing and content requirements for notices and agendas of public meetings, workshops, and hearings of agencies subject to ch. 120, F.S.

- The complaint is dismissed as legally insufficient;
- The alleged violator requests in writing that the records and proceedings be made public; or
- The state commission, local Commission on Ethics and Public Trust, or county or municipality that has established such local investigatory process determines whether probable cause exists to believe that a violation has occurred.²⁸

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Linked Bill

This bill is linked to SB 2, which, in part, authorizes the Governor, the Department of Law Enforcement, a state attorney, or a United States Attorney to submit a written referral of a possible violation of the Code of Ethics or other possible breach of the public trust to the Florida Commission on Ethics (state commission).²⁹ SB 2 authorizes the state commission to investigate such referral if it determines by a supermajority vote that the referral is sufficient to indicate a violation.³⁰

Public Records and Meetings Exemptions Relating to Possible Ethics Violations

This bill amends subsection (2) of s. 112.324, F.S., to add new public records and meetings exemptions required by changes proposed in SB 2 to the existing public records and meetings exemptions related to complaints of possible ethics violations submitted to the state commission.

The bill clarifies that the existing public meetings exemption for any proceeding conducted by the state commission or a local government pursuant to a complaint or preliminary investigation is limited to those portions of proceedings that are conducted pursuant to a complaint or preliminary investigation.

The bill makes the following records temporarily confidential and exempt from s. 119.071(1), F.S., and s. 24(a), Art. I of the Florida Constitution:

- Written referrals of possible ethics violations and records relating to such referrals that are held by the state commission or its agents, the Governor, the Department of Law Enforcement, or a state attorney;³¹ and
- Records relating to any preliminary investigation of such referrals that are held by the state commission or its agents.

The bill also makes any portion of a proceeding conducted by the state commission in which a determination regarding a referral is discussed or acted upon temporarily exempt from s. 286.011, F.S.; s. 24(b), Art. I of the Florida Constitution; and s. 120.525, F.S.

²⁸ Section 112.324(2)(c), F.S.

²⁹ Lines 1314-1319 of the bill.

³⁰ The state commission consists of nine unpaid, appointed members (s. 112.321(1) and (3), F.S.). SB 2 requires a yes vote of six members to initiate an investigation based upon a referral.

³¹ United States Attorneys are not included in the exemption because a United States Attorney is a federal, not state, agency.

The bill subjects the new exemptions to the statutory conditions upon which the existing exemptions expire. It also adds “the commission determines that it will not investigate the referral” to such existing statutory conditions.

The bill extends the Open Government Sunset Review repeal date for s. 112.324(2), F.S., from October 2, 2015, to October 2, 2018.

The bill provides a public necessity statement as required by the Florida Constitution.

The bill takes effect on the same date that SB 2 takes effect. SB 2 is to take effect upon becoming a law.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

Not applicable. This bill does not appear to require counties or municipalities to spend funds or take action requiring the expenditure of funds; reduce the authority that counties or municipalities have to raise revenues in the aggregate; or reduce the percentage of state tax shared with counties or municipalities.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

Vote Requirement

Section 24(c), Art. I of the Florida Constitution requires a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting in each house of the Legislature for passage of a newly created public records or public meetings exemption. Because this bill creates new public records and meetings exemptions, it requires a two-thirds vote for passage.

Public Necessity Statement

Section 24(c), Art. I of the Florida Constitution requires a public necessity statement for a newly created public records or public meetings exemption. Because this bill creates new public records and meetings exemptions, it includes a public necessity statement.

Single Subject

Section 24(c), Art. I of the Florida Constitution requires a bill creating or expanding a public records or open meetings exemption to contain only exemptions from constitutional public records and open meetings requirements and provisions governing the enforcement of the section. This bill creates new public records and open meetings exemptions.

Lines 54-57 of the bill exempt any proceeding of the commission in which a determination regarding a referral is discussed or acted upon from s. 286.011, F.S., s. 24(b), Art. I of the Florida Constitution, and s. 120.525, F.S. Section 120.525, F.S., sets forth timing and content requirements for notices and agendas of public meetings, hearings, and workshops of agencies subject to ch. 120, F.S. It is unclear whether the inclusion of s. 120.525, F.S., in the exempted provisions constitutes a substantive provision.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

The Florida Commission on Ethics, the Governor, the Department of Law Enforcement, and state attorneys may incur indeterminate administrative costs related to temporary maintenance of the confidentiality of referrals, related records, and records relating to preliminary investigations of referrals. The Commission on Ethics also may incur indeterminate administrative costs related to compliance with the public meetings exemption for proceedings relating to referrals. Any such indeterminate administrative costs would likely be insignificant.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

This bill is linked to Senate Bill 2.

VIII. Additional Information:

A. Committee Substitute – Statement of Substantial Changes:
(Summarizing differences between the Committee Substitute and the prior version of the bill.)

CS by Governmental Oversight and Accountability on February 6, 2013:

The CS differs from the original bill in that it:

- Does not amend a substantive current law restriction on times in which an ethics complaint may be filed or an intent to file such complaint may be disclosed.
- Clarifies that the current public meetings exemption relating to possible ethics violations and the public meetings exemption for referrals of possible ethics violations created by the bill apply only to those portions of proceedings at which confidential and exempt information is discussed.
- Clarifies that referrals are confidential and exempt when held by a state attorney, not by state attorneys in the plural.

B. Amendments:

None.

This Senate Bill Analysis does not reflect the intent or official position of the bill's introducer or the Florida Senate.
