Senate Amendment

Delete lines 43 - 46

and insert:

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), property and casualty insurance policies and endorsements that do not contain personally identifiable information may be posted on the insurer's Internet website. Personally identifiable information that is not to be posted includes, but is not limited to, the insured's name, home address, phone number, e-mail address, the property value, the premium amount, the level of insurance coverage, and identification of the insured personal property. If the insurer elects to post
