14 pursuant to s. 97.055 and who is otherwise qualified may 15 register to vote in such election until 5 p.m. on the Friday 16 before that election in the office of the supervisor of 17 elections. Such persons must produce sufficient documentation 18 showing evidence of qualifying for late registration pursuant to 19 this section.

20 Section 2. Subsection (3) of section 97.061, Florida
21 Statutes, is amended to read:

22 97.061 Special registration for electors requiring 23 assistance.—

24 (3) The precinct register generated by the supervisor shall 25 contain a notation that such person is eligible for assistance
26 in voting, and the supervisor may make a notation on the voter 27 information card that such person is eligible for assistance in 28 voting. Such person shall be entitled to receive the assistance
29 of two election officials or some other person of his or her own 30 choice, other than the person's employer, an ~~the~~ agent of the 31 person's employer, or an officer or agent of the person's union,
32 without the necessity of executing the "Declaration to Secure 33 Assistance" prescribed in s. 101.051, so long as the person is 34 known to the elector before election day. Such person shall 35 notify the supervisor of any change in his or her condition
36 which makes it unnecessary for him or her to receive assistance 37 in voting. An individual may not provide assistance to more than 38 10 electors during any election.
