SUMMARY ANALYSIS

HB 7071 passed the House on March 22, 2013, as SB 692.

The Division of Statutory Revision of the Office of the Legislative Services is required by statute to conduct a systematic and continuing study of the statutes and the laws of this state. The purpose of this study is to recommend to the Legislature changes that will remove inconsistencies, redundancies, and unnecessary repetition from the statutes and otherwise improve their clarity and facilitate their correct and proper interpretation. In carrying out this work, statutory revision recommends changes such as correcting grammatical and typographical errors and deleting obsolete, repealed, or superseded provisions. These recommendations are submitted to the Legislature in the form of technical, nonsubstantive reviser's bills.

HB 7071 is a general reviser's bill that deletes statutory provisions that have been repealed by a non-current (past-year) session of the Legislature where that repeal or expiration date has now occurred, rendering the provision of no effect. Such provisions may be omitted from publication in the 2013 Florida Statutes only through a reviser's bill duly enacted by the Legislature.

The bill was approved by the Governor on April 10, 2013, ch. 2013-16, L.O.F., and will become effective on July 2, 2013.

I. SUBSTANTIVE INFORMATION

A. EFFECT OF CHANGES:

The effect of the general reviser's bill is of a technical, non-substantive nature. This reviser's bill repeals provisions that have become inoperative by noncurrent repeal or expiration and, pursuant to ss. 11.242(5)(b) and (i), F.S., may be omitted from publication in the 2013 Florida Statutes only through a reviser's bill duly enacted by the Legislature.

Section 11.242(5)(i), Florida Statutes, requires the Division of Statutory Revision to place obsolete provisions in a reviser's bill for ratification of the repeals by the Legislature before the Division may delete them from the text of the Florida Statutes.

The effect of a reviser's bill is technical in nature only; the provisions of the bill do not change current substantive law.
