74 ordinarily used in farming and ranching operations. The term
75 also includes the potential of a participant to act in a 76 negligent manner that may contribute to the injury of the 77 participant or others, including failing to follow the

94 land on which the agritourism occurs for the injury or death of,
95 or damage or loss to, an agritourism participant resulting 96 exclusively from any of the inherent risks of agritourism
97 activities. In any action for damages against an agritourism
98 professional, his or her employer or employee, and the owner of 99 the underlying land on which the agritourism occurs for

106 loss to, an agritourism participant, subsection (1) does not 107 prevent or limit the liability of an agritourism professional or 108 his or her employer or employee or the owner of the underlying 109 land on which the agritourism occurs if he or she has actual 110 knowledge of, or reasonably should have known of, a dangerous

112 in the activity and fails to make that danger known to the 113 participant.

114 (3) The limitation on legal liability afforded by this 115 section to an agritourism professional or his or her employer or 116 employee or the owner of the underlying land on which the 117 agritourism occurs is in addition to any limitations of legal 118 liability otherwise provided by law.

126 at the site of the agritourism activity. The notice of inherent 127 risk must consist of a sign in black letters, with each letter a 128 minimum of 1 inch in height, with sufficient color contrast to 129 be clearly visible.

130 (b) Each written contract entered into by an agritourism
131 professional for the providing of professional services,

141
142 Under Florida law, an agritourism professional is not 143 liable for injury or death of, or damage or loss to, a
144 participant in an agritourism activity conducted at this 145 agritourism location if such injury, death, damage, or loss
146 results from the inherent risks of the agritourism activity.
147 Inherent risks of agritourism activities include, among others, 148 risks of injury inherent to land, equipment, and animals, as 149 well as the potential for you to act in a negligent manner that

152
153 (3) Failure to comply with the requirements of this 154 subsection prevents an agritourism professional, his or her 155 employer or employee, or the owner of the underlying land on 157 immunity provided by this section.
