Amendment No.

14 (f) Includes a provision in any policy procured through 15 the clearinghouse program that provides that a policyholder may 16 commence an action in the courts of this state, or in the courts
17 of the United States that are located within this state,
18 regarding any dispute arising under the policy. This paragraph 19 does not amend current law governing subject matter jurisdiction
20 of any state court or any federal court located in this state.

21 (g) Maintains, or has an affiliate in the same holding 22 company structure that maintains, a claims office located in 23 this state staffed with full-time employees that are licensed 24 claims adjusters. External claims resources may be used to 25 supplement the requirements of this paragraph.

26 (h) Provides prominent notice to the policyholder:
