WHEREAS, the Legislature finds that the federal REAL ID Act of 2005 has created an undue hardship for many residents of this state due to the excessive documents that must be produced to obtain or renew a driver license or identification card, most notably, women who have changed their names due to marriage, divorce, or by being widowed, and

WHEREAS, the cost to comply with the REAL ID Act as enacted in this state in 2008 is excessive, and

WHEREAS, not all residents desire to obtain a federal identification card that must be used to access federal facilities, board federally regulated commercial aircraft, enter nuclear power plants, or for other purposes as determined by the Secretary of Homeland Security, as required by the REAL ID Act, and

WHEREAS, Title II of the REAL ID Act of 2005 allows a state to "opt out" of creating a federal driver license or identification card by continuing to issue a regular driver license or identification card if it is marked appropriately, and

WHEREAS, in 2013, the Legislature passed HB 7059, chapter 2013-1, Laws of Florida, to give relief to foreign tourists from excessive driver license regulation and passed House Bill 235 to give relief to certain immigrants by a federal "Deferred Action" letter, and

WHEREAS, in 2014, House Bill 53 proposes to assist convicted criminals in obtaining the documents needed to obtain a REAL ID, and

WHEREAS, such relief has not benefited the residents of this state in the process of obtaining or renewing their licenses or identification cards, and these residents have not been afforded equal treatment before the law as required by s. 2, Article I of the State Constitution, and

WHEREAS, it is necessary and proper to give similar relief to the residents of this state, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Legislative Intent.-Notwithstanding any other law, it is the intent of the Legislature to fully comply with Title II of the federal REAL ID Act of 2005 but also to provide an option for residents to opt out of such requirements and, in doing so, minimize any cost or inconvenience to residents of this state who wish to obtain or renew a driver license or

States shall be prominently printed on the back of each Florida nonfederal identification as an additional security feature, to read:
"The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."
(c) Florida nonfederal identification may not contain a noncontact electronic authentication, a radio frequency identification, a microchip, or a digital facial capture. A proprietary color photograph that cannot be used for facial recognition purposes must be used.
(2) A resident of this state who holds a driver license or identification card issued after January 1, 2010, may choose to change his or her licensure or cardholder status from "Florida federal" to "Florida nonfederal" for the cost of a replacement license or identification card. If the resident elects Florida nonfederal status, the department shall securely destroy any documents and digital facial captures that were obtained from the resident and issue Florida nonfederal identification as described in this section.
(3) A Florida nonfederal identification is valid for 8 years.
(4) A resident of this state who was unable to or refused to renew his or her driver license or identification card after January 1, 2010, due to the federal REAL ID Act, may not be assessed a late fee.
(5) This section does not apply to non-United States citizens.
