II. Present Situation:

State Poets Laureate

A poet laureate is a poet who is “acclaimed as the most excellent or most representative of a locality or group.”¹ According to the Library of Congress, 42 states have an official State Poet Laureate position.² Duties of such poets laureate vary, but generally include the promotion of the reading, writing, and appreciation of poetry.³

In Florida, the position of Poet Laureate of the State of Florida was established in 1928 by the governor's proclamation and is a lifetime appointment.⁴ Three poet laureates have been appointed since the inception of the position.⁵

- Encourage and assist freedom of artistic expression;
- Advise the Secretary of State in matters concerning the awarding of grants for arts and culture; and
- Review applications for grants for the acquisition, renovation, or construction of cultural facilities and recommend a priority for the disbursement of such grants.⁸

Duties of the Florida Council on Arts and Culture

The bill amends the current duties of the Council to also require the Council to:

- Promote the reading, writing, and appreciation of poetry throughout the state; and
- Accept nominations and recommend nominees for appointment as the State Poet Laureate.

Establishment, Selection, and Duties of the State Poet Laureate

The bill establishes the honorary position of State Poet Laureate within the Department.

The bill requires the Council, in accordance with procedures adopted by the Department, to accept nominations for State Poet Laureate. The Council must solicit nominations from a broad array of literary sources and members of the public.

The bill also requires the Council to recommend at least five nominees to the Secretary of State. Each nominee must be:

- A permanent resident of the state;
- A public literary poet who has significant standing inside and outside of the state; and
- Willing and physically able to perform the duties of the State Poet Laureate as prescribed by the Department, which may include, but are not limited to, engaging in outreach and mentoring for the benefit of schools and communities throughout the state and performing readings of his or her own poetry.

The bill requires the Secretary of State to submit three of the Council's nominees to the Governor. The Governor must appoint one of the Secretary of State's nominees as the State Poet Laureate.

Terms of Service of the State Poet Laureate

The bill specifies that the State Poet Laureate will serve a term of four years. A vacancy for the remainder of an unexpired term must be filled in the same manner as the original appointment.

The bill also provides that each of the state's poets laureate appointed before the effective date of the bill, and each State Poet Laureate appointed under the bill's provisions (upon the appointment of his or her successor), will be designated a State Poet Laureate Emeritus or State Poet Laureate Emerita in recognition of his or her service to the state.

The bill specifies that the State Poet Laureate and State Poets Laureate Emeritus or Emerita serve without compensation. The bill does not authorize reimbursement of any expenses incurred by a State Poet Laureate.

Rulemaking Authority

The bill authorizes the Department to adopt rules to administer the section.

The bill takes effect on July 1, 2014.

types of forms.¹⁰ An agency may only adopt rules that implement or interpret the specific powers and duties granted by the enabling statute.¹¹ Because legislative power involves the exercise of policy-related discretion over the content of law,¹² any discretion given an agency to implement a law must be “pursuant to some minimal standards and guidelines ascertainable by reference to the enactment establishing the program.”¹³

The bill authorizes the Department of State (Department) to adopt rules to administer the section, but does not explicitly require it. However, the bill appears to implicitly require rulemaking because it requires the Council’s acceptance of nominees to be in accordance with procedures created by the Department and requires the Department to prescribe duties of the State Poet Laureate.¹⁴

Other Comments

The bill does not provide a process by which a State Poet Laureate may be removed from the position.
