BILL: SB 550

INTRODUCER: Senator Hukill

SUBJECT: Traveling Across County Lines to Commit a Felony Offense

DATE: March 14, 2014

REVISED: _____

I. Summary:

SB 550 creates s. 843.22, F.S., which makes it a third degree felony for a person who resides in Florida to travel any distance and cross a Florida county boundary with the intent to commit a felony offense in a Florida county that is not their residence.

II. Present Situation:

According to Martin County Sheriff William Snyder, there has been a recent phenomenon in Martin County, and most Florida counties, where traveling burglars dubbed “the pillowcase burglars” break into houses near the interstate, stuff the most valuable items into pillowcases and immediately flee to another county. According to Snyder, traditional methods of law enforcement such as using local pawn shop databases, confidential informants, normal proactive police patrols, or targeted patrols based on time in place of burglary are less effective because of the burglars’ speedy departure from the county of the burglary.¹

Bail Determinations

Pretrial release is an alternative to incarceration that allows arrested defendants to be released from jail while they await disposition of their criminal charges.² Generally, pretrial release is granted by releasing a defendant on their own recognizance, by requiring the defendant to post bail, and/or by requiring the defendant to participate in a pretrial release program.³

Bail requires an accused to pay a set sum of money to the sheriff to secure his or her release. If a defendant released on bail fails to appear before the court at the appointed place and time, the bail is forfeited. The purpose of a bail determination in criminal proceedings is to ensure the appearance of the criminal defendant at subsequent proceedings and to protect the community against unreasonable danger.⁴ Courts must consider certain things when determining whether to release a defendant on bail, and what bail should be (e.g., the nature and circumstances of the offense charged, the weight of the evidence against the defendant, the defendant's family ties, length of residence in the community, employment history, financial resources, and mental condition, etc.).⁵

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill creates s. 843.22, F.S., which makes it a third degree felony for a person who resides in Florida to travel any distance and across a Florida county boundary with the intent to commit a felony offense in a Florida county that is not their residence.

The bill defines "county of residence" as the county within Florida which a person resides. Evidence of a person's county includes but is not limited to:

- The address on a person's driver license or state identification card;
- Records of real property or mobile home ownership;
- Records of a lease agreement for residential property;
- The county in which a person's motor vehicle is registered;
- The county in which a person is enrolled in an educational institution; and
- The county in which a person is employed.

The bill defines "felony offense" as an attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit: battery; stalking; kidnapping; sexual battery; lewdness; prostitution; arson; burglary; theft; robbery; carjacking; home-invasion robbery; trafficking in a controlled substance; and racketeering.

The bill amends s. 903.046(1), F.S., to prohibit those charged with traveling across county lines with the intent to commit a felony from being released on bail until first appearance to ensure the full participation of the prosecutor and the protection of the public.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

None.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

⁴ Section 903.046, F.S.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

V. Fiscal Impact Statement:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

The Criminal Justice Impact Conference met on January 30, 2014, and determined the bill will have an insignificant negative impact on state prison beds because the bill creates a new third degree felony offense. The bill may also have a negative jail bed impact because it prohibits persons charged under s. 843.22, F.S., from being released on bail until first appearance. However, since first appearance must occur within 24 hours of arrest, the impact on local jails will likely be insignificant.

According to the Department of Corrections (DOC), there will be a $3,400 fiscal impact on the agency's technology systems due to the need for a new offense code and additional changes to existing codes and tables. DOC estimates 40 hours of work at $85.00 an hour.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

The DOC states that depending on the offender's total Criminal Punishment Code sentencing points, the additional third degree felonies could result in multiple or longer sentences for supervision offenders and/or an increase in the inmate population.

VIII. Statutes Affected:

This bill substantially amends section 903.046 of the Florida Statutes.

This bill creates section 843.22 of the Florida Statutes.
