Each enactment shall specify the types of counties authorized to levy; the rate or rates which may be imposed; the maximum length of time the surtax may be imposed, if any; the procedure which must be followed to secure voter approval, if required; the purpose for which the proceeds may be expended; and such other requirements as the Legislature may provide. Taxable transactions and administrative procedures shall be as provided in s. 212.054.

(9) HIGHER EDUCATION SURTAX.—A county as defined in s. 125.011(1), pursuant to an ordinance that is conditioned to take effect only upon approval by a majority vote of the electors of the county voting in a referendum, may levy a surtax of up to 0.5 percent for the benefit of a Florida College System institution and a state university as defined in s. 1000.21 which are located in the county.

(a) The ordinance must be enacted by the governing body of the county before June 1 of the year in which the referendum is to be held. However, the referendum may not be held until at least 45 percent of the students seeking an associate degree

61 or at least 50 percent of the students seeking an associate

82 (c) The expense of holding the referendum may not be paid
83 with student fees or any public funds, but shall be paid only
