SUMMARY ANALYSIS

HB 7133 passed the House on April 1, 2014, as SB 938.

HB 7133 replaces all statutory references to the "Department of Children and Family Services" with references to the "Department of Children and Families" to conform references within the Florida Statutes to the redesignation of the "Department of Children and Family Services" as the "Department of Children and Families" by Section 2, Chapter 2012-84, Laws of Florida.

Subject to the Governor's veto powers, the effective date of this bill is July 1, 2014.

I. SUBSTANTIVE INFORMATION

A. EFFECT OF CHANGES:

A reviser's bill proposes technical, non-substantive changes in the Florida Statutes as part of the ongoing revision and editing of the statutes as directed by the Legislature. On occasion, such as when agency names are changed, a substantive law making such change will direct legislative offices to prepare a reviser's bill for consideration in a subsequent session, updating all the statutory references affected by the name change. HB 7133 follows that pattern, changing statutory references from "Department of Children and Family Services" to "Department of Children and Families."

The effect of a reviser's bill is technical in nature only; the provisions of the bill do not change current substantive law.
