SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Florida imposes an annual tax on premiums collected by insurance companies doing business in the state. This tax applies to life, health, property and casualty, title insurance, and most other types of policies at a rate of 1.75%, with deductions allowed for reinsurance accepted, return premiums, assessments, and various credits. It applies to self-insurance funds at a rate of 1.6%. It applies to annuities at a rate of 1%. It applies to wet marine and transportation insurance at a rate of 0.75% of gross underwriting profit, defined as net premiums minus net losses paid.

The bill provides that insurance premiums tax on bail bond premiums shall be calculated as 1.75% of bail bond premiums excluding any portion of the premium retained by bail bond agents or managing general agents. Other credits and exemptions applicable to insurance premiums tax may still be applied as under current law.

The Revenue Estimating Conference met on March 7, 2014 and estimated this bill would have a cash and recurring impact of -$0.7 million to general revenue beginning in fiscal year 2014-2015.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation

Insurance Premiums Tax

Florida imposes an annual tax on premiums collected by insurance companies doing business in the state.<sup>1</sup> This tax applies to life, health, property and casualty, surety, title insurance, and most other types of policies at a rate of 1.75%, with deductions allowed for reinsurance accepted, return premiums and assessments.<sup>2</sup> It applies to self-insurance funds at a rate of 1.6%.<sup>3</sup> It applies to annuities at a rate of 1%.<sup>4</sup> It applies to wet marine and transportation insurance at a rate of 0.75% of gross underwriting profit, defined as net premiums minus net losses paid.<sup>5</sup>

There are a number of credits allowed against insurance premiums tax liability. These include:

- 100% of corporate income tax paid pursuant to chapter 220, F.S.<sup>6</sup>
- 15% of salaries paid by the company to its Florida-based employees.<sup>7</sup>
- 50% of a community contribution made pursuant to the Community Contribution Tax Credit Program for enterprise zones.<sup>8</sup>
- 100% of donations made to eligible scholarship funding organizations pursuant to s. 1002.395.<sup>9</sup>

The sum of the credits granted for corporate income tax and employee salaries may not exceed 65% of the insurer's premium tax liability.<sup>10</sup>

Retaliatory Tax

When another state or foreign country levies certain taxes or fees, including insurance premiums tax, on Florida insurers in excess of the taxes and fees levied by Florida on insurers from such other state or foreign country, a retaliatory tax is charged.<sup>11</sup> Companies from the other state or foreign country are taxed using the same tax and fee structure that a similar Florida insurer operating in such state or foreign country would be charged.

Bail Bonds

When a person is charged with a crime in this state, they may seek pre-trial release. One method of seeking release is by applying for bail.<sup>12</sup> After a bail determination hearing, the court may grant the defendant monetary bail. Such bail can be satisfied by a surety bond presented by a qualified individual, group of individuals, or a bail bond agent licensed under chapter 648, F.S.<sup>13</sup> Such surety bonds serve as a guarantee by the surety that the defendant will appear at all necessary hearings.<sup>14</sup>

Licensed bail bond agents are required to charge a premium in exchange for granting the surety bond.<sup>15</sup> Bail bond agents are subject to Section I of the Insurance Code contained in chapter 627, F.S., which requires that their rates be filed with and approved by the Office of Insurance Regulation.

Bail bond agents retain up to 93.5% of the premium, and the insurance company retains the remainder.<sup>16</sup> Unlike other types of insurance companies, domestic bail bond providers file their required financial reports based on premiums collected net of any money retained by agents.<sup>17</sup>

Proposed Changes

The bill provides that insurance premiums tax on bail bond premiums shall be calculated as 1.75% of bail bond premiums excluding any portion of the premium retained by bail bond agents or managing general agents. Other credits and exemptions applicable to insurance premiums tax may still be applied as under current law.

Additionally, it removes language from section 624.4094, F.S., relating to the calculation of insurance premiums tax on bail bond premiums to conform to the changes detailed above.

B. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1. Amends section 624.4094, F.S., repealing the provision that insurance premium taxes on bail bond premiums shall not be calculated based on premiums collected but excluding any portion of the premium retained by a bail bond agent.

Section 2. Amends section 624.509, F.S., to provide that insurance premiums tax on bail bond premiums shall be calculated as 1.75% of bail bond premiums but excluding any portion of the premium retained by a bail bond agent or managing general agent.

Section 3. Provides an effective date.
