I. Summary:

SB 1078 repeals s. 798.02, F.S., which makes it a second degree misdemeanor for an unmarried man and a woman to lewdly and lasciviously cohabit together, or any man or woman, married or unmarried to engage in open and gross lewdness and lascivious behavior.

II. Present Situation:

Section 798.02, F.S., makes it a second degree misdemeanor for any unmarried man and woman to lewdly and lasciviously associate and cohabit together, or if married or unmarried engage in open and gross lewdness and lascivious behavior. This law was originally enacted in 1868 and made the crime of cohabitation punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding two years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars.<sup>1</sup>

According to the National Conference of State Legislatures there are only three states, Florida, Michigan, and Mississippi that make cohabitation illegal. Eight states that once made cohabitation illegal have repealed those statutes, one as recently as 2013.<sup>2</sup>

States with Cohabitation Laws

Florida	798.02	If any man and woman, not being married to each other, lewdly and lasciviously associate and cohabit together, or if any man or woman, married or unmarried, engages in open and gross lewdness and lascivious behavior, they shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.
