30 Section 1. Section 11.31, Florida Statutes, is created to 31 read:

32 11.31 Independent commission on legislative apportionment
33 and congressional redistricting.-

34 (1) (a) To assist the Legislature in its decennial
35 apportionment of the state into senatorial and representative 36 districts and congressional redistricting, there is created an 37 independent commission on legislative apportionment and 38 congressional redistricting.

39 (b)1. The commission shall coordinate the state's decennial
40 legislative apportionment and congressional redistricting
41 activities, including, but not limited to, preparing and 42 proposing reapportionment plans and redistricting plans to the 43 Legislature and conducting public hearings on the proposed 44 plans.

45 2. Beginning in 2020, and for each decennial period
46 thereafter, commission members must be appointed before January
47 1, and the first commission meeting must occur before March 1.

48 (2) (a) The commission shall consist of the following nine
49 members, each of whom must be a registered elector of the state:

50 1. One member appointed by the President of the Senate.

51 2. One member appointed by the Speaker of the House of 52 Representatives.

53 3. One member appointed by the Minority Leader of the 54 Senate.

55 4. One member appointed by the Minority Leader of the House
56 of Representatives.

57 5. Five members appointed by the Governor:

58 a. One of whom must be a registered Republican, as 59 designated on his or her voter registration.

60 b. One of whom must be a registered Democrat, as designated 61 on his or her voter registration.

62 c. Three of whom must be registered with a minor political 63 party or have no party affiliation, as designated on his or her
64 voter registration.

65 (b)1. A member must have resided in the state for at least 66 5 years before appointment to the commission.

67 2. A member must have registered with his or her political 68 party, or have no party affiliation, for at least 5 years before
69 appointment to the commission.

70 (c) A commission member may not hold any elected office
71 during his or her service on the commission.

72 (d) Commission members shall serve without compensation but 73 shall be reimbursed for per diem and travel expenses in 74 accordance with s. 112.061.

75 (3) The Legislature shall annually appropriate funds to the 76 commission for employing professional staff, procuring office
77 space and necessary equipment, and other expenses necessary for 78 the staff to perform their duties. The commission's office shall 79 be located in Orange County.

80 (4) (a) The commission shall conduct public hearings as part 81 of its activities. The commission shall establish and publish in 82 the Florida Administrative Register a schedule of hearings and 83 hearing locations as soon as practicable after its first 84 meeting.

85 (b) The hearing process shall include hearings to receive 86 public input before the commission draws a redistricting or 87 reapportionment map. The commission shall also conduct hearings

88 following the drawing and display of draft redistricting and 89 reapportionment maps. The commission shall display the draft 90 maps to the public for comment in a timely manner to achieve the 91 widest public dissemination reasonably possible.

92 (c) As part of the hearing process, the commission shall 93 create and maintain a website through which residents of the 94 state may submit information on behalf of any individual,
95 employee, group, or themselves. The commission shall also 96 implement procedures allowing residents to submit information by 97 regular mail, telephone, and facsimile.

98 (d) Beginning in 2022, and for each decennial period
99 thereafter, plans developed and approved by the commission shall 100 be transmitted to the Legislature before January 1 to be 101 considered by the Legislature at its next regular session as 102 required by s. 16, Art. III of the State Constitution.

103 (5) In developing district boundaries, the commission must 104 ensure that plans conform to ss. 20 and 21, Art. III of the 105 State Constitution.

106 (6) Commission members and employees are subject to the 107 provisions of chapter 119, relating to public records, and the 108 provisions of chapter 286, relating to public meetings, and 109 shall comply with the applicable financial disclosure
110 requirements of ss. 112.3148 and 112.3149.

111 (7) Except in the manner provided in subsection (4), it is 112 unlawful for a person not serving on or employed by the 113 commission to influence or attempt to influence a commission
114 member or employee to alter a plan in any way. A person who 115 violates this subsection commits a felony of the third degree, 116 punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.
