234 employees have made reasonable efforts to protect such
235 information from being accessible through other means available
236 to the public. This sub-subparagraph is subject to the Open 237 Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and 238 shall stand repealed on October 2, 2020, unless reviewed and

241 specified in subparagraph 2. and that is not the employer of the 242 officer, employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in 243 subparagraph 2. shall maintain the exempt status of that 244 information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other 245 person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a 246 written request for maintenance of the exemption to the 247 custodial agency.

248 4. The exemptions in this paragraph apply to information

262 spouses and children of such consultant and employees; and that 263 the names and locations of schools and day care facilities
264 attended by the children of such consultant and employees be 265 exempt from public records requirements if the consultant or 266 employees have made reasonable efforts to protect such
267 information from being accessible through other means available
268 to the public. The Legislature finds that the release of such 269 identifying and location information could place the impaired
270 practitioner consultant, the consultant's employees, and the 271 spouses and children of the consultant and the consultant's
272 employees in danger of being physically and emotionally harmed
273 or being stalked by a disgruntled practitioner who has a hostile
274 reaction to a recommendation, report, or conclusion provided by 275 the consultant or the consultant's employees in determining 276 whether the practitioner is impaired. The Legislature further 277 finds that the harm that may result from the release of such 278 identifying and location information outweighs any public 279 benefit that may be derived from the disclosure of the 280 information.

281 Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
