260 operations units perform among the most critical, most

261 effective, and most dangerous operations in defense of our 262 nation's freedom. The unique missions undertaken by special 263 operations units render these servicemembers and their families
264 among the most critical assets worthy of protection in our state 265 and country. Allowing public access to the names, addresses, and 266 identifying information of current or former servicemembers of 267 United States military special operations units and their 268 families can endanger these servicemembers, their spouses, and 269 their children. Protecting current and former servicemembers of 270 the United States military special operations units, their 271 spouses, and their children outweighs any public benefit that 272 may be derived from the disclosure of the identifying 273 information protected herein.

274 Section 3. This act shall take effect October 1, 2015.
