A bill to be entitled

An act relating to countersignature; amending s. 624.425, F.S.; providing that the absence of a countersignature does not affect the validity of a policy or contract; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Subsection (1) of section 624.425, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

624.425 Agent countersignature required, property, casualty, surety insurance.—

(1) Except as stated in s. 624.426, no authorized property, casualty, or surety insurer shall assume direct liability as to a subject of insurance resident, located, or to be performed in this state unless the policy or contract of insurance is issued by or through, and is countersigned by, an agent who is regularly commissioned and licensed currently as an agent and appointed as an agent for the insurer under this code. However, the absence of a countersignature does not affect the validity of the policy or contract. If two or more authorized insurers issue a single policy of insurance against legal liability for loss or damage to person or property caused by a ~~the~~ nuclear energy hazard, or a single policy insuring against loss or damage to property by radioactive contamination, whether or not also insuring against one or more other perils proper to

27 | insure against in this state, such policy if otherwise lawful
28 | may be countersigned on behalf of all of the insurers by a
29 | licensed and appointed agent of any insurer appearing thereon.
30 | The producing agent shall receive on each policy or contract the
31 | full and usual commission allowed and paid by the insurer to its
32 | agents on business written or transacted by them for the
33 | insurer.

34 |       Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2015.
