SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Florida law defines a “slungshot” as a small mass of metal, stone, sand, or similar material fixed on a flexible handle, strap, or the like, used as a weapon. The term is currently included in the definition of “concealed weapon.” As such, a person who is licensed to carry a concealed weapon may carry a slungshot in a concealed manner. A person may also openly carry a slungshot, even without a concealed carry license.

Chapter 790, F.S., currently contains a variety of criminal provisions relating to a slungshot. For example:

- Section 790.09, F.S., makes it a second degree misdemeanor for a person to manufacture, cause to be manufactured, sell, or expose for sale a slungshot or metallic knuckles.
- Section 790.18, F.S., makes it a second degree felony for a dealer in arms to sell or transfer a slungshot to a minor.

The bill amends s. 790.001, F.S., to remove “slungshot” from the definition of “concealed weapon.” As a result, a person will be able to carry a slungshot concealed without a permit. The bill also amends ss. 790.09 and 790.18, F.S., to remove references to “slungshot.” This will make it lawful for:

- A person to manufacture, cause to be manufactured, sell, or expose for sale a slungshot or metallic knuckles; and
- A dealer in arms to sell or transfer a slungshot to a minor.

Because the bill limits the application of misdemeanor and felony offenses, it could have a positive prison bed impact on the Department of Corrections and a positive jail bed impact on local governments.

The bill is effective upon becoming a law.

However, s. 790.18, F.S., makes it a second degree felony for a dealer in arms to sell or transfer a variety of items, including a slungshot, to a minor. Because the bill allows a dealer in arms to sell or transfer a slungshot to a minor, it could have a positive prison bed impact on the Department of Corrections.

The bill does not appear to have any impact on local government revenues.
