Senator Gibson moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete line 85

and insert:

incest, domestic violence, or human trafficking. A woman may waive the 24-hour waiting period if she lives 100 miles or more from the nearest abortion provider. If a woman has exercised her right to waive the state-mandated delay, the woman's health care provider is not subject to any criminal, civil, or administrative penalty for failure to secure consent 24 hours in advance of the procedure. The patient's signature noting that

12 she has exercised her right to waive the 24-hour waiting period
13 requirement is sufficient proof of the provider's compliance
14 with the requirements of this subparagraph. This subparagraph
15 does not alter the health care provider's duty to obtain
16 voluntary and informed consent as otherwise required by this 17 section.
