Senator Clemens moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete line 85

and insert:

incest, domestic violence, or human trafficking. A woman who states that she is a victim of rape, incest, domestic violence, or human trafficking and is not able to present to the physician a copy of a restraining order, police report, medical record, or other court order or documentation evidencing her statement has a right to waive the 24-hour mandatory waiting period. In the event a woman exercises her right to waive the state-mandated

874120

12 delay, the woman's health care provider is not subject to any 13 criminal, civil, or administrative penalties for failure to 14 secure consent 24 hours in advance of the procedure. A signed
15 acknowledgement from the woman stating that she has exercised 16 her right to waive certain requirements is sufficient proof of 17 provider compliance. This section does not alter the health care 18 provider's duty to obtain voluntary and informed consent as 19 otherwise required by this section.

22 And the title is amended as follows:

23 Delete line 5

24 and insert:

25 pregnancy; providing exceptions; providing that a
26 health care provider is not subject to penalties under 27 certain circumstances; providing that the act does not
28 alter a certain duty of a health care provider;
29 reenacting s. 390.012(3)(d), F.S., relating
