Senator Clemens moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete line 86

and insert:

incest, domestic violence, or human trafficking. A woman who states that she is a victim of rape, incest, domestic violence, or human trafficking and is not able to present to the physician a copy of a restraining order, police report, medical record, or other court order or documentation evidencing her statement has a right to waive the 24 hour mandatory waiting period. In the event a woman has exercised her right to waive the state-

12 mandated delay, the woman's health care provider is not subject
13 to any criminal, civil, or administrative penalties for failure 14 to secure consent 24 hours in advance of the procedure. The 15 woman's signature noting that she has exercised her right to 16 waive certain requirements is sufficient proof of provider
17 compliance. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to 18 alter the health care provider's duty to obtain voluntary and 19 informed consent as otherwise required by this section.
