3 Amendment (with directory and title amendments)

4 Between lines 1131 and 1132, insert:

5 (11) (a) The local enforcing agency may not issue a
6 building permit to construct, develop, or modify a public
7 swimming pool without proof of application, whether complete or 8 incomplete, for an operating permit pursuant to s. 514.031. A 9 certificate of completion or occupancy may not be issued until 10 such operating permit is issued. The local enforcing agency
11 shall conduct its review of the building permit application upon 12 filing and in accordance with this chapter. The local enforcing 13 agency may confer with the Department of Health, if necessary,

14 but may not delay the building permit application review while 15 awaiting comment from the Department of Health.

16 (b) If the department determines under s. 514.031(2) that 17 a public pool or a public bathing place is not being operated or 18 maintained in compliance with the department's rules, the 19 original approved plans and specifications or variances, and the 20 Florida Building Code, the local enforcement agency shall permit 21 and inspect the repairs or modifications required as a result of 22 the department's inspections and may take enforcement action to 23 ensure compliance.
