Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 1296 and 1297

insert:

Section 49. Section 702.12, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

702.12 Actions in foreclosure.—

(1) A lienholder in an action to foreclose its mortgage may use as an admission by the defendant in the foreclosure action any document that the defendant filed in a bankruptcy case under penalty of perjury. In addition to the other matters identified

12 in s. 90.202, the lienholder may also request that the court 13 take judicial notice of any final order entered in the 14 bankruptcy case.

15 (2) The lienholder's submission in such foreclosure action
16 of any document filed by the defendant in the bankruptcy case 17 which evidences an intention to surrender to the lienholder the 18 property that is the subject of the foreclosure action and which 19 document has not been withdrawn by the defendant, together with 20 a final order entered in the bankruptcy case which discharges 21 the defendant's debts or confirms the defendant's repayment
22 plan, creates a rebuttable presumption that the defendant:

23 (a) Has surrendered to the lienholder the defendant's 24 interest in the mortgaged property that is the subject of such 25 foreclosure action; and

26 (b) Has waived any defenses to such foreclosure.

27 (3) This section may not be deemed to preclude the 28 defendant in a foreclosure action from raising a defense based 29 upon the lienholder's conduct subsequent to the filing of the 30 document filed in the bankruptcy case which evidenced the 31 defendant's intention to surrender the mortgaged property to the 32 lienholder.
