CS for SB 376

By the Committee on Fiscal Policy; and Senator Hukill

594-01458-16 2016376c1 1 A bill to be entitled 2 An act relating to individuals with disabilities; 3 creating s. 17.68, F.S.; providing legislative 4 findings; establishing the Financial Literacy Program 5 for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities within 6 the Department of Financial Services; requiring the 7 department to develop and implement the program in 8 consultation with specified stakeholders; providing 9 for the participation of banks, credit unions, savings 10 associations, and savings banks; requiring the program 11 to provide information, resources, outreach, and 12 education on specified issues to individuals with developmental disabilities and employers in this 13 state; requiring the department to establish on its 14 15 website a clearinghouse for information regarding the 16 program and to publish a brochure describing the 17 program; requiring, by a specified date, qualified 18 public depositories to make copies of the department's 19 brochure available and provide a hyperlink on their 20 websites to the department's website for the program; 21 providing that qualified public depositories are not 22 subject to civil liability arising from the 23 distribution and contents of the brochure and the 24 program website information; amending s. 280.16, F.S.; 25 requiring a qualified public depository to participate 2.6 in the program; providing an appropriation; providing 27 an effective date. 28 29 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Page 1 of 5

CS for SB 376

32read:3317.68 Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with34Developmental Disabilities35(1) The Legislature finds that the state has a compelling36interest in promoting the economic independence and successful37employment of individuals with developmental disabilities as38defined in s. 393.063. In comparison with the general39population, individuals with developmental disabilities40experience lower rates of educational achievement, employment,41and annual earnings and are more likely to live in poverty.42Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network43of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for44financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes45individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and46skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility47determination processes and make informed decisions regarding48financial services and products provided by financial49institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such50individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a51(2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with53Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen54of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with		594-01458-16 2016376c1
32read:3317.68 Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with34Developmental Disabilities35(1) The Legislature finds that the state has a compelling36interest in promoting the economic independence and successful37employment of individuals with developmental disabilities as38defined in s. 393.063. In comparison with the general39population, individuals with developmental disabilities40experience lower rates of educational achievement, employment,41and annual earnings and are more likely to live in poverty.42Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network43of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for44financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes45individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and46skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility47determination processes and make informed decisions regarding48financial services and products provided by financial49individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a51successful employment.52(2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with53Developmental Disabilities is established within the Department54of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with55public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t56program, which must be designed to promote the economic57independence and successful employment	30
3317.68 Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with34Developmental Disabilities35(1) The Legislature finds that the state has a compelling36interest in promoting the economic independence and successful37employment of individuals with developmental disabilities as38defined in s. 393.063. In comparison with the general39population, individuals with developmental disabilities40experience lower rates of educational achievement, employment,41and annual earnings and are more likely to live in poverty.42Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network43of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for44financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes45individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and46skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility47determination processes and make informed decisions regarding48financial services and products provided by financial49individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a50successful employment.52(2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with53Developmental Disabilities is established within the Department54program, which must be designed to promote the economic55independence and successful employment of individuals with	31	Section 1. Section 17.68, Florida Statutes, is created to
34Developmental Disabilities35(1) The Legislature finds that the state has a compelling36interest in promoting the economic independence and successful37employment of individuals with developmental disabilities as38defined in s. 393.063. In comparison with the general39population, individuals with developmental disabilities40experience lower rates of educational achievement, employment,41and annual earnings and are more likely to live in poverty.42Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network43of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for44financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes45individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and46skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility47determination processes and make informed decisions regarding48financial services and products provided by financial49individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a50(2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with51Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen54of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with55public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t56program, which must be designed to promote the economic57independence and successful employment of individuals with	32	read:
(1) The Legislature finds that the state has a compelling interest in promoting the economic independence and successful employment of individuals with developmental disabilities as defined in s. 393.063. In comparison with the general population, individuals with developmental disabilities experience lower rates of educational achievement, employment, and annual earnings and are more likely to live in poverty. Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility determination processes and make informed decisions regarding financial services and products provided by financial individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a successful employment. (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t program, which must be designed to promote the economic independence and successful employment of individuals with	33	17.68 Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with interest in promoting the economic independence and successful employment of individuals with developmental disabilities as defined in s. 393.063. In comparison with the general population, individuals with developmental disabilities experience lower rates of educational achievement, employment, and annual earnings and are more likely to live in poverty. Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility determination processes and make informed decisions regarding financial services and products provided by financial individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a successful employment. (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t program, which must be designed to promote the economic independence and successful employment of individuals with	34	Developmental Disabilities employment of individuals with developmental disabilities as defined in s. 393.063. In comparison with the general population, individuals with developmental disabilities experience lower rates of educational achievement, employment, and annual earnings and are more likely to live in poverty. Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility determination processes and make informed decisions regarding financial services and products provided by financial individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a successful employment. (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t program, which must be designed to promote the economic independence and successful employment of individuals with	35	(1) The Legislature finds that the state has a compelling defined in s. 393.063. In comparison with the general population, individuals with developmental disabilities experience lower rates of educational achievement, employment, and annual earnings and are more likely to live in poverty. Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility determination processes and make informed decisions regarding financial services and products provided by financial institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a successful employment. (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t program, which must be designed to promote the economic independence and successful employment of individuals with	36	interest in promoting the economic independence and successful
39 population, individuals with developmental disabilities 40 experience lower rates of educational achievement, employment, 41 and annual earnings and are more likely to live in poverty. 42 Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network 43 of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for 44 financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes 45 individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and 46 skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility 47 determination processes and make informed decisions regarding 48 financial services and products provided by financial 49 institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such 50 individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a 51 successful employment. 52 (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with 53 Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen 54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	37	employment of individuals with developmental disabilities as
<pre>40 experience lower rates of educational achievement, employment, 41 and annual earnings and are more likely to live in poverty. 42 Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network 43 of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for 44 financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes 45 individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and 46 skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility 47 determination processes and make informed decisions regarding 48 financial services and products provided by financial 49 institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such 50 individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a 51 successful employment. 52 (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with 53 Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen 54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with</pre>	38	defined in s. 393.063. In comparison with the general
41 and annual earnings and are more likely to live in poverty. 42 Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network 43 of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for 44 financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes 45 individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and 46 skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility 47 determination processes and make informed decisions regarding 48 financial services and products provided by financial 49 institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such 50 individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a 51 successful employment. 52 (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with 53 Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen 54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	39	population, individuals with developmental disabilities
42Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network43of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for44financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes45individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and46skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility47determination processes and make informed decisions regarding48financial services and products provided by financial49institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such50individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a51successful employment.52(2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with53Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen54of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with55public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t56program, which must be designed to promote the economic57independence and successful employment of individuals with	40	experience lower rates of educational achievement, employment, of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility determination processes and make informed decisions regarding financial services and products provided by financial institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a successful employment. (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t program, which must be designed to promote the economic independence and successful employment of individuals with	41	and annual earnings and are more likely to live in poverty.
financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that thes individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility determination processes and make informed decisions regarding financial services and products provided by financial institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a successful employment. (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t program, which must be designed to promote the economic independence and successful employment of individuals with	42	Additionally, such individuals must navigate a complex network
45 individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and 46 skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility 47 determination processes and make informed decisions regarding 48 financial services and products provided by financial 49 institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such 50 individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a 51 successful employment. 52 (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with 53 Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen 54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	43	of federal and state programs in order to be eligible for
46 skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility 47 determination processes and make informed decisions regarding 48 financial services and products provided by financial 49 institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such 50 individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a 51 successful employment. 52 (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with 53 Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen 54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	44	financial and health benefits. Thus, it is essential that these
47 determination processes and make informed decisions regarding 48 financial services and products provided by financial 49 institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such 50 individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a 51 successful employment. 52 (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with 53 Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen 54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	45	individuals have sufficient financial management knowledge and
48 financial services and products provided by financial 49 institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such 50 individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a 51 successful employment. 52 (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with 53 Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen 54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	46	skills to effectively participate in benefit eligibility
49 institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such 50 individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a 51 successful employment. 52 (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with 53 Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen 54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	47	determination processes and make informed decisions regarding
50 individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence a 51 successful employment. 52 (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with 53 Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen 54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	48	financial services and products provided by financial
51 successful employment. 52 (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with 53 Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen 54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	49	institutions. Enhancing the financial literacy of such
52 (2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with 53 Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen 54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	50	individuals will provide a pathway for economic independence and
53 Developmental Disabilities is established within the Departmen 54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	51	successful employment.
54 of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with 55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	52	(2) The Financial Literacy Program for Individuals with
55 public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement t 56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	53	Developmental Disabilities is established within the Department
56 program, which must be designed to promote the economic 57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	54	of Financial Services. The department, in consultation with
57 independence and successful employment of individuals with	55	public and private stakeholders, shall develop and implement the
	56	program, which must be designed to promote the economic
58 developmental disabilities. Banks, credit unions, savings	57	independence and successful employment of individuals with
	58	developmental disabilities. Banks, credit unions, savings

Page 2 of 5

i	594-01458-16 2016376c1
59	associations, and savings banks will be key participants in the
60	development and promotion of the program, which must provide
61	information, resources, outreach, and education in the following
62	areas:
63	(a) For individuals with developmental disabilities:
64	1. Financial education, including instruction on money
65	management skills and the effective use of financial services
66	and products, to promote income preservation and asset
67	development.
68	2. Identification of available financial and health benefit
69	programs and services.
70	3. Job training programs and employment opportunities,
71	including work incentives and state and local workforce
72	development programs.
73	4. The impact of earnings and assets on eligibility for
74	federal and state financial and health benefit programs, and
75	options to manage such impact.
76	(b) For employers in this state, strategies to make program
77	information and educational materials available to their
78	employees with developmental disabilities.
79	(3) The department shall:
80	(a) Establish on its website a clearinghouse for
81	information regarding the program and other resources available
82	for individuals with developmental disabilities and their
83	employers.
84	(b) Publish a brochure describing the program, which is
85	also accessible on its website.
86	(4) Within 90 days after the department establishes the
87	website clearinghouse and publishes the brochure, each bank,
1

Page 3 of 5

594-01458-16 2016376c1 88 savings association, and savings bank that is a qualified public 89 depository as defined in s. 280.02 shall: 90 (a) Make copies of the department's brochures available, 91 upon the request of the consumer, at its principal place of 92 business and each branch office located in this state which has 93 in-person teller services by having copies of the brochure 94 available or having the capability to print a copy of the 95 brochure from the department's website. Upon request, the 96 department shall provide copies of the brochure to a bank, 97 savings association, or savings bank. 98 (b) Provide on its website a hyperlink to the department's 99 website clearinghouse. If the department changes the website address for the clearinghouse, the bank, savings association, or 100 101 savings bank must update the hyperlink within 90 days after 102 notification by the department of such change. 103 (5) A participating qualified public depository is not 104 subject to civil liability arising from the distribution or 105 nondistribution of the brochure or program website information. 106 The contents of the brochure or the program website information 107 may not be attributed to a participating qualified public 108 depository by virtue of its distribution, and do not constitute 109 financial or investment advice by, nor create a fiduciary duty 110 on, the participating qualified public depository to the 111 recipient. 112 Section 2. Paragraph (e) is added to subsection (1) of 113 section 280.16, Florida Statutes, to read: 114 280.16 Requirements of qualified public depositories; 115 confidentiality.-116 (1) In addition to any other requirements specified in this Page 4 of 5

CS for S	SB 376	6
----------	--------	---

	594-01458-16 2016376c1
117	chapter, qualified public depositories shall:
118	(e) Participate in the Financial Literacy Program for
119	Individuals with Developmental Disabilities as required under s.
120	17.68.
121	Section 3. For the 2016-2017 fiscal year, the sum of
122	$69,570 in recurring funds from the Insurance Regulatory Trust
123	Fund is appropriated to the Consumer Assistance Program within
124	the Department of Financial Services for the purpose of
125	implementing the program created by this act.
126	Section 4. This act shall take effect January 1, 2017.

Page 5 of 5