I. Summary:

SB 550 creates a Volunteer Rural Firefighter Certificate for volunteer firefighters who work for a firesafety provider located within a municipality with a population of fewer than 12,000 or a county with a population of fewer than 150,000. The bill requires the Division of State Fire Marshal to establish by rule courses and course examinations to provide training for the Volunteer Rural Firefighter Certificate. The required courses may not exceed 160 hours and must include emergency medical responder training.

II. Present Situation:

Division of the State Fire Marshal

State law on fire prevention and control is provided in ch. 633, F.S. Section 633.104, F.S., designates the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) as the State Fire Marshal, operating through the Division of the State Fire Marshal (Division).¹ Pursuant to this authority, the State Fire Marshal regulates, trains, and certifies fire service personnel; investigates the causes of fires; enforces arson laws; regulates the installation of fire equipment; conducts firesafety inspections of state property; develops firesafety standards; provides facilities for the analysis of fire debris; and operates the Florida State Fire College. Additionally, the State Fire Marshal adopts by rule the Florida Fire Prevention Code, which contains or references all firesafety laws and rules regarding public and private buildings.²

The Division consists of the following four bureaus: the Bureau of Fire and Arson Investigations, the Bureau of Fire Standards and Training, the Bureau of Forensic Fire and Explosive Analysis, and the Bureau of Fire Prevention.³ The Florida State Fire College, part of the Bureau of Fire Standards and Training, trains over 6,000 students per year.⁴ The Inspections Section, under the Bureau of Fire Prevention, annually inspects more than 14,000 state-owned buildings and facilities.⁵ Over 1.8 million fire and emergency reports are collected every year.⁶ These reports are entered into a database to form the basis for the State Fire Marshal's annual report.⁷

National Fire Protection Association (NFPA)

The National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) is an international nonprofit organization whose mission is to reduce the worldwide burden of fire and other hazards on the quality of life by providing and advocating consensus codes and standards, research, training, and education.⁸ Membership of the NFPA includes approximately 65,000 individuals from nearly 100 nations. NFPA publishes 300 codes and standards that are designed to minimize the risk and effects of fire by establishing criteria for building, processing, design, service, and installation in the United States, as well as many other countries.⁹ The NFPA has more than 200 technical code- and standard- development committees comprising over 6,000 volunteer seats.¹⁰ Volunteers vote on proposals and revisions in a process that is accredited by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI).¹¹

Firefighters Employment, Standards, and Training Council

The Firefighters Employment, Standards, and Training Council (Council) is housed at the Department of Financial Services and consists of 14 members.¹² Two members are fire chiefs appointed by the Florida Fire Chiefs Association; two members are firefighters who are not officers, appointed by the Florida Professional Firefighters Association; two members are firefighter officers who are not fire chiefs, appointed by the State Fire Marshal; one member is appointed by the Florida League of Cities; one member is appointed by the Florida Association of Counties; one member is appointed by the Florida Association of Special Districts; one member is appointed by the Florida Fire Marshal's Association; one member is appointed by the State Fire Marshal; and one member is a director or instructor of a state-certified firefighting training facility appointed by the State Fire Marshal.¹³

The Council has special powers in connection with the employment and training of firefighters as it:

Curriculum Requirements for Volunteer Firefighters¹⁵

Volunteer firefighter training consists of Part I of the State of Florida Minimum Standards Course as required by ch. 633, F.S., and Florida Administrative Codes 69A-37 and 69A-62. The Part I training curriculum is a total of 206 hours. A significant portion of this training can be completed through both online and practical skill courses. The online courses can be taken in lieu of the traditional classroom lecture and satisfy most of the required academic objectives. The following academic components make up the Part I Minimum Standards Curriculum:

- Firefighter I Curriculum—consists of classroom and live fire based core training.
- National Incident Management System—focuses on the history, features, principles and organizational structure of Incident Command.
- Wildland Firefighter Training—curriculum and field exercises that address the basic skills required of all wildland firefighters who must understand the behavior and factors that affect the spread of wildfires.
- EMS First Responder—curriculum that is an introduction to basic life support and emergency care.

Volunteer firefighters who have successfully completed the Part I training are able to operate in the exclusionary or hot zone¹⁶ and in an Immediately Dangerous to Life or Health environment.

Support Personnel¹⁷

Other volunteers who do not seek the level of training needed for a Volunteer Firefighters Certificate of Completion may still be members of a Volunteer Fire Department. These volunteers are known as Support Personnel. Support Personnel respond with volunteer firefighters and are part of the Volunteer Fire Department roster. Support Personnel serve a critical role in supporting any emergency response as long as they are always in a safe zone and are performing duties for which they have been “trained commensurate to duty.” They can perform all activities that a fire service provider (Volunteer Fire Department) has trained an individual to perform safely outside the hot zone of an emergency scene, including pulling hoses, opening and closing fire hydrants, driving and operating apparatus, carrying tools, carrying or moving equipment, directing traffic, manning a resource pool, or similar activities. “Trained commensurate to duty” means that the person must have documented training in the specific task assigned or a combination of skills required to accomplish any series of tasks which may be assigned to that individual, given a set of conditions or circumstances that the individual may undertake. Anticipated special circumstances such as hazardous materials operations, technical rescue, and similar conditions or circumstances require additional training.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 amends s. 633.102, F.S., to define the term “volunteer rural firefighter.”

Section 2 amends s. 633.406, F.S., to create a Volunteer Rural Firefighter Certificate for volunteer firefighters who provide services for a fire service provider located within a municipality with a population of fewer than 12,000 or a county with a population of fewer than 150,000, and are in existence on July 1, 2016, or that were in existence at any time between July 1, 2000, and July 1, 2016, and subsequently reestablished after July 1, 2016.

Section 3 amends s. 633.408, F.S., to require the Division to establish by rule courses and course examinations to provide training for a volunteer rural firefighter certificate. The required courses may not exceed 160 hours and must include emergency medical responder training. By rule any courses successfully completed after July 1, 1970, which were credited towards a certificate under ch. 633, F.S., can be applied toward the required training.

Section 4 amends s. 633.414, F.S., to provide that in order for a volunteer rural firefighter to retain her or his Volunteer Rural Firefighter Certificate of Completion, every 4 years he or she must be active as a volunteer rural firefighter or successfully complete a refresher course consisting of a minimum of 40 hours of training as prescribed by rule. The term “active” means being employed as a firefighter or providing service as a volunteer firefighter or volunteer rural firefighter for a cumulative 6 months within a 4-year period.

Section 5 amends s. 633.416, F.S., to revise the conditions under which a fire service provider may retain the services of an individual volunteering to extinguish fires or to supervise individuals who perform such services. Individuals who perform such services in a municipality with a population of fewer than 12,000 or a county with a population of fewer than 150,000 and who hold a current and valid Volunteer Rural Firefighter Certificate of Completion or a current and valid Volunteer Firefighter Certificate of Completion are now eligible.
