301 information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other 302 person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a 303 written request for maintenance of the exemption to the 304 custodial agency.

305 4. The exemptions in this paragraph apply to information

310 Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15, and shall stand 311 repealed on October 2, 2017, unless reviewed and saved from 312 repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

313 Section 2. (1) The Legislature finds that it is a public
314 necessity to expand the exemption from public records
315 requirements currently applicable to the home addresses, 316 telephone numbers, dates of birth, and photographs of 317 firefighters certified under s. 633.408, Florida Statutes; the 318 home addresses, telephone numbers, photographs, dates of birth, 319 and places of employment of the spouses and children of such

20171108er

320 firefighters; and the names and locations of schools and day
321 care facilities attended by the children of such firefighters to 322 also include former firefighters and their spouses and children.
323 The personal identifying and location information of other
324 former first responders, such as former law enforcement 325 officers, and their family members, are currently exempt from 326 public records requirements. Firefighters often respond to 327 serious emergency situations, ranging from domestic violence to 328 homicide, and the release of personal identifying and location
329 information may place former firefighters and their family 330 members in danger of serious physical or emotional harm by 331 hostile individuals. This danger continues after a firefighter
332 leaves employment.

333 (2) The Legislature also finds that it is a public 334 necessity to exempt the names of the spouses and children of 335 current and former firefighters from public records 336 requirements. A disgruntled individual may seek revenge against 337 a firefighter by targeting his or her the spouse or child.
338 Releasing the names of a spouses and children makes it easier to 339 locate and target them for acts of revenge.

340 (3) The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity to 341 exempt the personal identifying and location information of 342 current and former firefighters, and their spouses and children,
343 including the names of their spouses and children, from s.
344 24(a), Article I of the State Constitution in order to prevent 345 disclosure of information that can be used to identify or locate
346 current and former firefighters and their spouses and children.
347 It is in the public interest to fully protect these governmental 348 employees and their families and ensure that their identifying

20171108er

349 and location information is exempt from public disclosure when 350 it is held by an entity in the executive, legislative, or 351 judicial branch of government.

352 (4) The harm that may result from the release of personal 353 identifying and location information of current and former 354 firefighters and their families, as well as the names of the 355 spouses and children of current and former firefighters, 356 outweighs any public benefit that may be derived from the 357 disclosure of such information. Therefore, the Legislature finds 358 that it is a public necessity that the home addresses, telephone 359 numbers, dates of birth, and photographs of current or former 360 firefighters certified under s. 633.408, Florida Statutes; the 361 names, home addresses, telephone numbers, photographs, dates of 362 birth, and places of employment of the spouses and children of 363 such firefighters; and the names and locations of schools and 364 day care facilities attended by the children of such 365 firefighters be made exempt from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, 366 and s. 24(a), Article I of the State Constitution.

367 Section 3. This act shall take effect October 1, 2017.
