1                   A bill to be entitled
2           An act relating to self-defense immunity; amending s.
3           776.032, F.S.; requiring that the burden of proof in a 4           criminal prosecution be on the party seeking to 5           overcome the immunity claim under certain 6           circumstances; providing an effective date.

8 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
9

10           Section 1. Subsection (1) of section 776.032, Florida
11           Statutes, is republished, and subsection (4) is added to that 12           section, to read:

13           776.032 Immunity from criminal prosecution and civil action
14           for justifiable use or threatened use of force.—

15           (1) A person who uses or threatens to use force as 16           permitted in s. 776.012, s. 776.013, or s. 776.031 is justified 17           in such conduct and is immune from criminal prosecution and 18           civil action for the use or threatened use of such force by the 19           person, personal representative, or heirs of the person against 20           whom the force was used or threatened, unless the person against 21           whom force was used or threatened is a law enforcement officer, 22           as defined in s. 943.10(14), who was acting in the performance
23           of his or her official duties and the officer identified himself
24           or herself in accordance with any applicable law or the person 25           using or threatening to use force knew or reasonably should have 26           known that the person was a law enforcement officer. As used in 27           this subsection, the term "criminal prosecution" includes 28           arresting, detaining in custody, and charging or prosecuting the 29           defendant.

30           (4) In a criminal prosecution, once a prima facie claim of 31           self-defense immunity from criminal prosecution has been raised 32           by the defendant at a pretrial immunity hearing, the burden of
