Relief of J.D.S.

SPECIAL MASTER'S FINAL REPORT

THIS IS AN UNCONTESTED CLAIM FOR $950,000 PAYABLE TO THE AGED POOLED SPECIAL NEEDS TRUST ON BEHALF OF J.D.S., BASED ON A SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT BETWEEN PATTI R. JARRELL, AS PLENARY GUARDIAN OF J.D.S., AND THE STATE OF FLORIDA, AGENCY FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES. THE CLAIM AROSE FROM THE NEGLIGENT SUPERVISION OF A GROUP HOME BY THE AGENCY.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

In 1980, J.D.S. was born with severe disabilities, including cerebral palsy, autism, and mental retardation. J.D.S. has a 31 IQ and has been nonverbal her entire life. J.D.S. was placed in the custody of the State of Florida, Department of Children and Families (DCF) and considered to be a "ward" of DCF. Due to her condition, J.D.S. was dependent upon DCF for the provision of her care, treatment, and daily needs.

At the age of 4, J.D.S., as a developmentally-disabled dependent ward of the State of Florida, was placed in the Strong Group Home. J.D.S. was totally dependent on the Strong Group Home to provide the care for her needs. She was incapable of performing even the most basic functions of life. The Strong Group Home was licensed by DCF to operate the group home, and the home was monitored through face to face visits on a monthly basis with the exception of a short interval when, due to budget cuts, visits occurred either every other month or quarterly. The Strong Group Home was also visited monthly by the Medicaid Waiver Support Coordinator who had the responsibility of ensuring J.D.S. was receiving her care plan services. Hester Strong was the administrator/owner of the Strong Group Home and was assisted by her husband, Phillip Strong. In addition to caring for 4 - 6 developmentally disabled persons, Ms. Strong cared for her elderly parents who also resided in the home.

Beginning in late 2001 and into 2002, J.D.S.'s behavior became more aggressive. She began to resist getting into a car which had not been an exhibited behavior in the past. And, although she was previously toilet trained, she began exhibiting regular incontinence. Ms. Strong did not report these changes in J.D.S.'s behaviors, and the DCF monitoring reports of the Strong Group Home did not contain any reference to them.

In December 2002, J.D.S. became pregnant while a resident in the Strong Group Home. J.D.S. was 5 months pregnant when her doctor discovered her pregnancy.

Upon the discovery of J.D.S.'s pregnancy, DCF revoked the Strong Group Home's license and J.D.S. was moved to another group home. J.D.S. gave birth to a baby girl on August 30, 2003. The newborn was immediately removed from J.D.S. and placed for adoption. Following the birth, the Florida Department of Law Enforcement took DNA samples from Phillip Strong and the newborn. The results of the DNA testing confirmed that Phillip Strong was the biological father of the infant.

DCF was responsible for the oversight of the Strong Group Home and providing care to J.D.S. when the events related to the claim bill occurred. However, in 2004, the responsibility to oversee group homes for the disabled was transferred to the Agency for Persons with Disabilities along with DCF's related liabilities.

Based on the foregoing, the State of Florida, Agency for Persons with Disabilities, stipulated to the entry of a judgment in the amount of $1,150,000. The Agency for Persons' with Disabilities paid $200,000 to the AGED Pooled Special Needs Trust on behalf of J.D.S., leaving $950,000, which is the amount sought through this claim bill.

CLAIMANT'S POSITION:

The Agency for Persons with Disabilities is directly and vicariously liable for the rape and subsequent pregnancy of J.D.S. The claimant also alleges that the rape of J.D.S. was foreseeable by the agency. It should be noted that Mr. Strong was determined incompetent and never charged with the rape of J.D.S.

RESPONDENT'S POSITION:

The Agency for Persons with Disabilities settled this claim before a jury trial and is neutral in this proceeding and will take no action adverse to the passage of a claim bill.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

As provided in s. 768.28, F.S. (2002), sovereign immunity shields the State of Florida and its agencies against tort liability in excess of $200,000 per occurrence. The parties settled the case for $1.15 million, and the Agency for Persons with Disabilities paid $200,000 to the AGED Pooled Special Needs Trust on behalf of J.D.S. The claimant alleged APD is liable for the sexual molestation of J.D.S. under two separate legal precepts: vicarious liability and direct liability. The claimant alleged APD had a "non-delegable" duty to protect J.D.S. from harm and sexual assault. At all times material to this matter J.D.S. was a resident of the Strong Group Home.

APD is a governmental agency that licenses, monitors, and places clients in residential living facilities. APD does not undertake to provide direct services to any particular client. Instead, the Florida Legislature, in s. 393.066, F.S. (2002), has mandated that the day-to-day operational level duties of care and maintenance of a client are to be delegated by APD.

Duty

Whether there is a jury verdict or a settlement agreement, as there is in this case, every claim bill must be based on facts sufficient to meet the preponderance of evidence standard. DCF had a duty to protect and care for J.D.S. while she was in the care of the Strong Group Home. This duty included ensuring the administrator and staff of the Strong Group Home were properly trained to detect and prevent sexual abuse of the developmentally-disabled individuals placed in their care; adequate staffing was in place at all times and the staff met training requirements; the number of placements in the home did not exceed the limit established by DCF; and the home complied with the Bill of Rights of Persons with Developmental Disabilities as set forth under s. 393.13, F.S. (2002). Such Bill of Rights guarantees that developmentally disabled individuals have the right to be free from sexual abuse in a residential facility, the right to be free from harm, and the right to receive prompt and appropriate medical care and treatment.

The Strong Group Home administrator and staff did not meet the educational and training requirements set forth in Rule 65G-2.012, F.A.C., and s. 393.067, F.S. (2002). There was no evidence presented that the administrator met the educational requirements for licensing or that she or any staff member had received any training on how to detect, report, or prevent sexual abuse of the group home's residents and clients.

The Strong Group Home was licensed for and housed 4 - 6 developmentally disabled clients. Nevertheless, at one point while J.D.S. was in the home, DCF placed two foster children in the home. As a result of the placement of additional clients, not enough bedrooms were available and the dining room was converted into J.D.S.'s bedroom. The placement of her bed in the dining room area did not provide J.D.S. the privacy she was entitled to under the Bill of Rights of Persons with Developmental Disabilities set out in s. 393.13, F.S.

Additionally, the Strong Group Home had a duty to exercise reasonable care to protect J.D.S. from abuse and neglect, including sexual abuse; to exercise reasonable care to discover abuse and neglect, to provide J.D.S. with a reasonable, safe living environment that afforded her with privacy, and to exercise reasonable care to ensure she received prompt and appropriate medical care and treatment.

Breach

A preponderance of the evidence establishes that The Strong Group Home did not meet the educational and training requirements to be licensed as a group home initially by DCF and subsequently by APD. APD and the Strong Group Home as licensed by APD, breached their duty to properly care for and protect J.D.S. Further, APD and the Strong Group Home breached their duty to J.D.S. with respect to compliance with the rights and privileges afforded the developmentally disabled pursuant to the Bill of Rights of the Developmentally Disabled.

Causation

The failure of the Department of Children and Families and subsequently the Agency for Persons with Disabilities to ensure the staff of the Strong Group Home was properly trained, possessed the required levels of education and credentials likely led to the rape of J.D.S.

Damages

The claim bill awards $950,000 for the benefit of J.D.S. No evidence was presented or available indicating that the damages authorized by the settlement are excessive or inappropriate.

ATTORNEYS FEES:

Section 768.28(8), F.S., provides that “[n]o attorney may charge, demand, receive, or collect, for services rendered, fees in excess of 25 percent of any judgment or settlement.” The claimant’s attorneys have agreed to limit their fees to 25 percent of any amount awarded in compliance with the statutes. Lobbyists’ fees are included with the attorneys’ fees.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

For the reasons set forth above, I recommend that Senate Bill 28 be reported FAVORABLY.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara M. Crosier
Senate Special Master

cc: Secretary of the Senate

CS by Judiciary:

The committee substitute, in conformity with a recent opinion of the Florida Supreme Court, does not include the limits on costs, lobbying fees, and other similar expenses, which were included in the original bill.
