That the following creation of Section 22 of Article III and the amendment of Section 10 of Article IV of the State Constitution are agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of this state for approval or rejection at the next general election or at an earlier special election specifically authorized by law for that purpose:

ARTICLE III

LEGISLATURE

SECTION 22. Legislation by initiative.-

(a) The power to propose legislation by initiative is reserved to the people. The power may be invoked by filing with the custodian of state records a petition that contains a copy of the proposed legislation, which petition is signed by a number of electors in each of one half of the congressional districts of the state, and of the state as a whole, equal to

26 four percent of the votes cast in each such district, 27 respectively, and in the state as a whole in the previous 28 election in which presidential electors were chosen.

29 (b) Laws that provide for the number or assignment of 30 judges or the jurisdiction of courts, laws that the legislature
31 is prohibited from passing or must pass by an extraordinary
32 vote, and laws that change the boundaries of any municipality,
33 county, or special, legislative, or congressional district may 34 not be proposed by initiative.

35 (c) Legislation proposed by initiative must comply with 36 the requirements of this constitution applicable to laws enacted 37 by the legislature with respect to single subject and 38 prohibition of amendment by reference. Laws that are enacted by 39 initiative shall not be subject to the veto power of the 40 governor. Notwithstanding section 7 of this article, the 41 legislature may only amend or repeal legislation approved by 42 vote of the electors under this section by a vote of four-fifths 43 of the membership of each house of the legislature within one
44 year of the effective date of such legislation or three-fifths 45 of the membership of each house of the legislature one year or 46 later after the effective date of such legislation. The enacting 47 clause of every law proposed by initiative shall read: "Be It 48 Enacted by the People of the State of Florida by Initiative:".

49 (d) Legislation proposed by initiative shall be submitted
50 to the electors at the next general election held more than 51 ninety days after the initiative petition is filed with the 52 custodian of state records. The ballot must include a statement 53 expressing the chief purpose of the proposed legislation, in 54 clear and unambiguous language not exceeding 75 words in length, 55 and a statement of the economic impact of the proposed 56 legislation. If the legislation proposed by initiative is 57 approved by a majority of the electors voting in that election,

58 it shall be effective on the first day of July after the next
59 regular session of the legislature.

60 (e) The legislature shall establish by general law, by 61 July 1, 2019, procedures to be used in invoking and approving
62 legislation proposed by initiative and for providing sufficient
63 prior public notice.

64 ARTICLE IV
