11           Section 1. Section 83.51, Florida Statutes, is amended to 12           read:

13           83.51 Landlord's obligation to maintain premises.—

14           (1) The landlord at all times during the tenancy shall:

15           (a) Comply with the requirements of applicable building, 16           housing, and health codes; or

17           (b) Where there are no applicable building, housing, or 18           health codes, maintain the roofs, windows, doors, floors, steps, 19           porches, exterior walls, foundations, and all other structural 20           components in good repair and capable of resisting normal forces 21           and loads and the plumbing in reasonable working condition. The 22           landlord, at commencement of the tenancy, must ensure that 23           screens are installed in a reasonable condition. Thereafter, the 34 times during the tenancy, make reasonable provisions for:

35 1. The extermination of rats, mice, roaches, ants, wood-
36 destroying organisms, and bedbugs. When vacation of the premises
37 is required for such extermination, the landlord is not liable 38 for damages but shall abate the rent. The tenant must 39 temporarily vacate the premises for a period of time not to 40 exceed 4 days, on 7 days' written notice, if necessary, for 41 extermination pursuant to this subparagraph.

42 2. Locks and keys.

43 3. The clean and safe condition of common areas.

44 4. Garbage removal and outside receptacles therefor.

46 water, and hot water.

47 (b) Unless otherwise agreed in writing, at the commencement
48 of the tenancy of a single-family home or duplex, the landlord

53 Underwriters Laboratories, Inc., Factory Mutual Laboratories,
54 Inc., or any other nationally recognized testing laboratory
55 using nationally accepted testing standards.

56 (c) Nothing in this part authorizes the tenant to raise a
57 noncompliance by the landlord with this subsection as a defense
58 to an action for possession under s. 83.59.

59 (d) This subsection shall not apply to a mobile home owned 60 by a tenant.

61 (e) Nothing contained in this subsection prohibits the

62 landlord from providing in the rental agreement that the tenant
63 is obligated to pay costs or charges for garbage removal, water, 64 fuel, or utilities.

65 (3) If the duty imposed by subsection (1) is the same or 66 greater than any duty imposed by subsection (2), the landlord's
67 duty is determined by subsection (1).

68 (4) The landlord is not responsible to the tenant under 69 this section for conditions created or caused by the negligent
70 or wrongful act or omission of the tenant, a member of the 71 tenant's family, or other person on the premises with the 72 tenant's consent.

73 (5) Any person who violates this section commits a
74 misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s.
75 775.082 or s. 775.083. A second or subsequent offense
76 constitutes a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided 77 in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

78 Section 2. Section 83.64, Florida Statutes, is amended to 79 read:

80 83.64 Retaliatory conduct.—

81 (1) It is unlawful for a landlord to discriminatorily
82 increase a tenant's rent or decrease services to a tenant, or to 83 bring or threaten to bring an action for possession or other
84 civil action, primarily because the landlord is retaliating
85 against the tenant. In order for the tenant to raise the defense
86 of retaliatory conduct, the tenant must have acted in good
87 faith. Examples of conduct for which the landlord may not 88 retaliate include, but are not limited to, situations where:

89 (a) The tenant has complained to a governmental agency
90 charged with responsibility for enforcement of a building,

91 housing, or health code of a suspected violation applicable to 92 the premises;

93 (b) The tenant has organized, encouraged, or participated
94 in a tenant organization;

95 (c) The tenant has complained to the landlord pursuant to 96 s. 83.56(1);

97 (d) The tenant is a servicemember who has terminated a
98 rental agreement pursuant to s. 83.682;

99 (e) The tenant has paid rent to a condominium, cooperative, 100 or homeowners' association after demand from the association in 101 order to pay the landlord's obligation to the association; or

102 (f) The tenant has exercised his or her rights under local,
103 state, or federal fair housing laws.

104 (2) Evidence of retaliatory conduct may be raised by the 105 tenant as a defense in any action brought against him or her for 106 possession.

107 (3) In any event, this section does not apply if the 108 landlord proves that the eviction is for good cause. Examples of 109 good cause include, but are not limited to, good faith actions 110 for nonpayment of rent, violation of the rental agreement or of 111 reasonable rules, or violation of the terms of this chapter.

112 (4) "Discrimination" under this section means that a tenant 113 is being treated differently as to the rent charged, the 114 services rendered, or the action being taken by the landlord,
115 which shall be a prerequisite to a finding of retaliatory
116 conduct.

117 (5) Any person who violates this section commits a
118 misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s.
119 775.082 or s. 775.083. A second or subsequent offense

129 gas, elevator, garbage collection, or refrigeration, whether or 130 not the utility service is under the control of, or payment is 131 made by, the landlord.

132 (2) A landlord of any dwelling unit governed by this part 133 shall not prevent the tenant from gaining reasonable access to

136 (3) A landlord of any dwelling unit governed by this part

154 taken after surrender, abandonment, recovery of possession of 155 the dwelling unit due to the death of the last remaining tenant 156 in accordance with s. 83.59(3)(d), or a lawful eviction. If 157 provided in the rental agreement or a written agreement separate 158 from the rental agreement, upon surrender or abandonment by the 159 tenant, the landlord is not required to comply with s. 715.104
160 and is not liable or responsible for storage or disposition of 161 the tenant's personal property; if provided in the rental

181 and do not preclude the tenant from pursuing any other remedy at 182 law or equity which ~~that~~ the tenant may have. The remedies
