 23 Section 1. Section 316.2003, Florida Statutes, is created 24 to read:
 25 316.2003 Dogs in motor vehicles.-

26 (1) A person transporting a dog on a public street or 27 highway in the open bed of a pickup truck or an open area of any 28 vehicle or trailer must keep the dog within a secured kennel,
29 cage, or other ventilated container or securely tether the dog
30 to the vehicle or trailer in such a way as to prevent the dog
31 from falling from such vehicle or trailer and to prevent injury
32 to the animal. A person who violates this section commits a 33 noncriminal traffic infraction, punishable as a nonmoving
34 violation under chapter 318.

35 (2) This section does not apply to any of the following:

36 (a) A dog being transported by a farmer or farm employee
37 while actually engaged in farming activities using the services
38 of the dog.

39 (b) A hunting or sporting dog being used at a hunting
40 site, sporting event, or between hunting sites or sporting 41 events.

42 (3) The state hereby preempts the regulation of the 43 transportation of dogs in motor vehicles. Any existing or future
44 ordinance or rule adopted by a county, municipality, or other 45 local governmental entity is hereby declared void. If any 46 county, municipality, or other local governmental entity adopts 47 an ordinance or rule in violation of this section, the court
48 shall declare the ordinance or rule invalid and issue a
49 permanent injunction against the local government prohibiting it
50 from enforcing such ordinance or rule.
