16 billboard, promoting or announcing an issue of public
17 importance, public concern, or public welfare.

18 (2) No government entity, person on behalf of a government 19 entity, or elected official may use or authorize the use of an 20 elected official's name, image, likeness, official uniform,
21 badge or other symbol of office in a public service announcement
22 between the time the official becomes a candidate for re-23 election or election to another public office and the date of 24 the general election for which the candidate intends to qualify 25 if such announcement is paid with public funds or if the time or 26 space for such announcement was donated by the media. This 27 provision does not apply to bona fide news events, such as 28 public debates broadcast by a licensed broadcaster.
