Amendment No.

17 otherwise provided by county charter or special law approved by 18 vote of the electors, the clerk of the circuit court shall be ex
19 officio clerk of the board of county commissioners, auditor,
20 recorder, and custodian of all county funds. Notwithstanding 21 section 6 of this article, this subsection provides the 22 exclusive manner for the selection, length of term, abolition of 23 office, and transfer of duties of the sheriff in each county.
24 However, the legislature retains the power by special law
25 approved by a vote of the electors of the county to amend,
26 revise, or repeal a county charter established by a special law
27 which provided for the sheriff to be chosen in a manner other 28 than by election or which abolished the office of sheriff.
