vendor. However, a distributor that has received glassware at no charge from a malt beverage manufacturer or importer may give such glassware to a vendor licensed to sell malt beverages for on-premises consumption. Each piece of glassware given to a vendor by a distributor must bear a permanent brand name intended to prominently advertise the brand. A distributor may not give more than 3 cases of glassware per malt beverage brand not to exceed 3 malt beverage brands per manufacturer or importer per calendar year per licensed premises, for a total of not more than 9 cases of glassware per year per licensed

17 premises. As used in this paragraph, the term "case" means a box 18 containing up to 24 pieces of glassware. As used in this 19 paragraph, the term "glassware" means a single-service glass 20 container which can hold no more than 23 ounces of liquid 21 volume. A vendor that receives a gift of such glassware from a 22 distributor may not sell the glassware or return it to a 23 distributor for cash, credit, or replacement. Such glassware may 24 not be offered or furnished by any manufacturer, distiller, 25 brewer, vintner, or wholesaler, or by any officer, director, 26 agent, or employee thereof, or by any other person as an 27 inducement to the retailer to purchase or use the products of 28 such manufacturer, distiller, brewer, vintner, or wholesaler to 29 the exclusion in whole or in part of the product of any 30 competitor.

31 Section 2. This act shall take effect October 1, 2017.
