The Committee on Education (Lee) recommended the following:

1           Senate Amendment to Amendment (945386) (with title
2 amendment)

3
4           After line 48

5 insert:

6           Section 2. Section 1008.222, Florida Statutes, is created
7 to read:

8           1008.222 Student assessments for students of articulated
9 acceleration mechanisms.—

10           (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a student
11 who takes and passes an advanced placement, International

12 Baccalaureate, Advanced International Certificate of Education,
13 or national industry certification examination; takes and passes
14 any other articulated acceleration mechanism authorized under s.
15 1007.27; or achieves the required concordant scores on the ACT
16 or SAT examinations pursuant to s. 1008.22(8), is exempt from 17 taking the statewide, standardized assessments in the subject
18 areas covered by those examinations.

19 (2) By the first day of the 2017-2018 school year, the 20 Commissioner of Education shall identify concordant scores or 21 comparative scores, as appropriate, so that those scores satisfy
22 the high school graduation requirements under s. 1003.4282 for 23 an examination or assessment identified in subsection (1).

24 (3) The scores of students who pass the examinations or
25 assessments identified in subsection (1) shall be incorporated
26 into the school grade calculations under s. 1008.34.
