SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The Florida Constitution preempts all forms of taxation, except for ad valorem taxes on real estate and tangible personal property, to the state unless otherwise provided by general law. The millage rate for ad valorem taxation is set according to the methods established by Chapter 200, F.S.

Section 212.055, F.S., provides counties limited authority to levy discretionary sales surtaxes for specific purposes on transactions subject to state sales tax. With some exceptions, discretionary sales surtaxes generally are subject to approval by a majority of the qualified electors in a referendum.

Fifty-six counties and 18 school districts across the state levy at least one local discretionary sales surtax. These surtaxes will generate an estimated $2.3 billion in revenue during fiscal year 2017-18.

The bill requires any referendum to levy a discretionary sales surtax must be held during either a primary or a general election. Any such referendum held during a primary election must be approved by at least 60 percent of electors voting on the ballot question. A referendum held during a general election may be approved by only a majority of electors voting on the question.

The bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on both the state and local governments.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Current Situation

Discretionary Sales Surtax

The Florida Constitution preempts all forms of taxation, except ad valorem taxes on real and tangible personal property, to the state unless otherwise provided by general law.¹ By statute, counties have limited authority to levy a discretionary sales surtax for specific purposes on transactions subject to state sales tax.² These purposes include:

- Operating a transportation system in a charter county;³
- Financing local government infrastructure projects;⁴
- Providing additional revenue for counties having less than 50,000 residents as of April 1, 1992;⁵
- Providing medical care for indigent persons;⁶
- Funding trauma centers;⁷
- Operating, maintaining, and administering a county public general hospital;⁸
- Constructing and renovating schools;⁹
- Providing emergency fire rescue services and facilities; and¹⁰
- Funding pension liability shortfalls.¹¹

The surtax is collected by the Department of Revenue (DOR) using the same procedures utilized for the administration, collection, and enforcement of the general state sales tax.¹² DOR places these funds into the Discretionary Sales Surtax Clearing Trust Fund. A separate account is established for each county imposing a discretionary surtax. The proceeds of the surtax are distributed to the county on a monthly basis, minus an administrative fee of 3 percent or administrative costs solely and directly attributable to the surtax, whichever is less. Each county is liable for administrative costs equal to its prorated share of discretionary sales surtax revenue to the amount collected statewide.¹³

New surtaxes and rate changes to existing surtaxes take effect on January 1, while the repeal of an existing surtax takes effect on December 31.¹⁴ The governing body of the county or the school district must notify DOR of the imposition, termination, or rate change of a discretionary sales surtax within 10 days of final adoption by ordinance or referendum, but no later than November 16. The notification must include the duration of the surtax, the surtax rate, a copy of the ordinance, and any additional information DOR requires by rule.¹⁵ If the county or school district fails to provide timely notice, the effective date of the change is delayed by one year.¹⁶ Counties and school districts are also required to notify DOR if a referendum or consideration of an ordinance to impose, terminate, or change the rate of a surtax is to occur after October 1.¹⁷

The 56 counties and 18 school districts levying one or more discretionary sales surtaxes are projected to realize $2.3 billion in revenue in fiscal year 2017-18.¹⁸ If all counties and school districts levied discretionary sales surtaxes at the maximum possible rate, they would be projected to raise $11.68 billion in revenue in fiscal year 2016-17.¹⁹

Most local discretionary sales surtaxes may only be approved by referendum, while some may be approved by an extraordinary vote of the county commission.²⁰ For those requiring voter approval, the referendum must be approved by a majority of electors voting.²¹ Except for the emergency fire rescue services and facilities surtax, the date of the referendum is at the discretion of the county commission.²²

Referendum Process

The Florida Election Code states the general requirements for a referendum.²³ The question presented to voters must contain a ballot summary with clear and unambiguous language, such that a “yes” or “no” vote on the measure indicates approval or rejection, respectively.²⁴ The ballot summary should explain the chief purpose of the measure and may not exceed 75 words.²⁵ The ballot summary and title must be included in the resolution or ordinance calling for the referendum.²⁶ For some discretionary sales surtaxes, the form of the ballot question is specified by statute.²⁷

Five types of elections exist under the Florida Election Code: primary elections, special primary elections, special elections, general elections, and presidential preference primary elections.²⁸ A “general election” is defined as an election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in even-numbered years to fill national, state, county, and district offices, and for voting on constitutional amendments.²⁹ A “primary election” is defined as an election held preceding the general election for the purpose of nominating a party nominee to be voted for in the general election to fill a national, state, county, or district office.³⁰

Proposed Changes

The bill provides that any referendum to adopt or amend a discretionary sales surtax may be approved during a primary or general election. If the referendum is held at a primary election, at least 60 percent of the electors voting must approve of the measure. A referendum on a discretionary sales surtax held during a general election must be approved by a majority of the electors voting. The bill defines "general election" to have the same meaning as defined in s. 97.021, F.S.

B. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1: Amends s. 212.055, F.S., establishing thresholds for local government discretionary sales surtax referenda.

Section 2: Provides an effective date of July 1, 2018.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

Subsection 18(b) of article VII of the Florida Constitution provides that the Legislature, except upon approval by a two-thirds vote, may not enact a general law if the anticipated effect of doing so would be to reduce the authority that counties or municipalities have to raise revenues in the aggregate.

It is unclear whether increasing the required percentage for voter approval to adopt a discretionary sales surtax resulting from this bill represents a reduction in revenue raising authority as contemplated by subsection 18(b). If the purpose of subsection 18(b) is to determine whether the amount of potential revenue available to counties and municipalities was reduced, then this bill does not reduce that potential and the requirement for a two-thirds vote is not applicable. However, if the purpose of subsection 18(b) is to look at the methods for adopting a discretionary sales surtax, then the provisions of this bill requiring a supermajority vote to approve a discretionary sales surtax which currently may be adopted by a majority vote, may be considered a mandate requiring a two-thirds vote of the Legislature. There is no legal authority to guide the Legislature in making a determination regarding this issue.

2. Other:

None.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

The bill does not provide rulemaking authority or require executive branch rulemaking.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

None.

IV. AMENDMENTS/ COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

On November 8, 2017, the Local, Federal & Veterans Affairs Subcommittee adopted one amendment and reported the bill favorably as a committee substitute. The amendment removed a provision requiring the governing body of a municipality to approve any ad valorem tax increase by at least 60 percent of the members voting. The amendment also requires discretionary sales surtax referenda to be held during either a primary or general election. The amendment requires approval by at least 60 percent of the electors voting if the referendum is held during a primary election.

This analysis is drafted to the committee substitute as passed by the Local, Federal & Veterans Affairs Subcommittee.
