Representative Berman offered the following:

Substitute Amendment for Amendment (565819)

Remove lines 751-807 and insert:

ammunition by allowing law enforcement officers, licensed medical professionals, or a family or household member to obtain a court order when there is demonstrated evidence that a person poses a significant danger to himself or herself or others, including significant danger as a result of a mental health crisis or violent behavior.

(2) The purpose and intent of s. 790.401, Florida Statutes, is to reduce deaths and injuries as a result of certain individuals' use of firearms while respecting

14 constitutional rights by providing a judicial procedure for law
15 enforcement officers to obtain a court order temporarily 16 restricting a person's access to firearms and ammunition. The 17 process established by s. 790.401, Florida Statutes, is intended 18 to apply only to situations in which the person poses a 19 significant danger of harming himself or herself or others by 20 possessing a firearm or ammunition and to include standards and 21 safeguards to protect the rights of respondents and due process 22 of law.

23 Section 14. Section 790.401, Florida Statutes, may be 24 cited as "The Risk Protection Order Act."

25 Section 15. Section 790.401, Florida Statutes, is created 26 to read:

27 790.401 Risk protection orders.-

28 (1) DEFINITIONS.-As used in this section, the term:

29 (a) "Family or household member" has the same meaning as 30 provided in s. 741.28. The term includes a person who:

31 1. Has a biological or legal parent-child relationship 32 with the respondent, including stepparents and stepchildren and 33 grandparents and grandchildren.

34 2. Is acting or has acted as the respondent's legal 35 guardian.

36 (b) "Petitioner" means a law enforcement officer, a law 37 enforcement agency, or a licensed medical professional that

38 petitions a court for a risk protection order under this 39 section.

40 (c) "Respondent" means the individual who is identified as 41 the respondent in a petition filed under this section.

42 (d) "Risk protection order" means a temporary ex parte
43 order or a final order granted under this section.

44 (2) PETITION FOR A RISK PROTECTION ORDER.—There is created 45 an action known as a petition for a risk protection order.

46 (a) A petition for a risk protection order may be filed by 47 a law enforcement officer, law enforcement agency, or a licensed 48 medical professional or a family or household member.

49 (b) An action under this section must be filed in the 50 county where the petitioner's law enforcement office is located, 51 the county where the respondent resides, the county where the 52 licensed medical professional practices, or the county where the 53 family or household member resides.

54 (c) Such petition for a risk protection order does not 55 require either party to be represented by an attorney.

56 (d) Notwithstanding any other law, attorney fees may not 57 be awarded in any proceeding under this section.

58 (e) A petition must:

59 1. Allege that the respondent poses a significant danger 60 of causing personal injury to himself or herself or others by 61 having a firearm or any ammunition in his or her custody or 62 control or by purchasing, possessing, or receiving a firearm or

63 any ammunition, and must be accompanied by an affidavit made
64 under oath stating the specific statements, actions, or facts
65 that give rise to a reasonable fear of significant dangerous 66 acts by the respondent;

67 2. Identify the quantities, types, and locations of all 68 firearms and ammunition the petitioner believes to be in the 69 respondent's current ownership, possession, custody, or control; 70 and

71 3. Identify whether there is a known existing protection 72 order governing the respondent under s. 741.30, s. 784.046, or 73 s. 784.0485 or under any other applicable statute.

74 (f) If the petition is filed by a law enforcement 75 officer, law enforcement agency, or licensed medical 76 professional, the petitioner must make a good faith effort to
