15 Section 1. This act may be cited as the "Scouts Access
 16 Bill."

17 Section 2. Section 1001.433, Florida Statutes, is created
 18 to read:

19 1001.433 Patriotic societies in schools.—

20 (1) As used in this section, "patriotic society" means a
 21 youth group listed in Title 36, U.S.C., as a patriotic society,
 22 including Boy Scouts of America, and its affiliated Florida
 23 groups and councils, and the Girl Scouts of the United States of 24 America, and its affiliated Florida groups and councils.

25 (2) A district school board must allow a representative of

26 | a patriotic society the opportunity, during school hours, to
27 | speak with and distribute instructional materials to students to
28 | encourage participation in the patriotic society and its
29 | activities.

30 | (3) (a) A patriotic society shall provide at least 60 days'
31 | written notice to the school district and principal of the
32 | school of its intent to speak to students. Within 15 days of
33 | receipt of the notice, the principal must provide in writing to
34 | the patriotic society a specific day and time within the next 45
35 | school days for the patriotic society's representative to speak
36 | to students.

37 | (b) A patriotic society's presentation to students may not
38 | exceed 10 minutes of instructional time.

39 | Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2018.
