43 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

45 Section 1. Effective July 1, 2019, section 731.1065,
 46 Florida Statutes, is created to read:

47 731.1065 Precious metals.—

48 (1) For the purposes of the code, precious metals in any 49 tangible form, such as bullion or coins kept and acquired for 50 their historical, artistic, collectable, or investment value

51 apart from their normal use as legal tender for payment, are 52 tangible personal property.

53 (2) This section is intended to clarify existing law and 54 applies retroactively to all written instruments executed
55 before, on, or after July 1, 2019, as well as all proceedings
56 pending or commenced before, on, or after July 1, 2019, in which 57 the disposition of precious metals in any tangible form has not 58 been finally determined.

59 Section 2. Effective upon this act becoming a law,
60 subsection (2) of section 731.301, Florida Statutes, is amended
61 to read:

62 731.301 Notice.—

63 (2) In a probate proceeding, formal notice is sufficient
64 to acquire jurisdiction over the person receiving formal notice
65 to the extent of the person's interest in the estate or in the 66 decedent's protected homestead. Formal notice is not sufficient
67 to invoke the court's personal jurisdiction over the person
68 receiving formal notice.

69 Section 3. The amendment made by this act to s. 731.301,
70 Florida Statutes, applies to all proceedings pending on or 71 before, or commenced after, the date this act becomes a law.

72 Section 4. Effective July 1, 2019, section 733.610,
73 Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

74 733.610 Sale, encumbrance, or transaction involving 75 conflict of interest.—Any sale or encumbrance to the personal

76 | representative or the personal representative's spouse, agent,
77 | or attorney, or any corporation, other entity, or trust in which
78 | the personal representative, or the personal representative's
79 | spouse, agent, or attorney, has a substantial beneficial or
80 | ownership interest, or any transaction that is affected by a
81 | conflict of interest on the part of the personal representative,
82 | is voidable by any interested person except one who has
83 | consented after fair disclosure, unless:

84 |       (1) The will or a contract entered into by the decedent
85 | expressly authorized the transaction; or

86 |       (2) The transaction is approved by the court after notice
87 | to interested persons.

88 |       Section 5. Subsection (6) of section 733.617, Florida
89 | Statutes, is amended, and subsection (8) is added to that
90 | section, to read:

91 |       733.617 Compensation of personal representative.—

92 |       (6) Except as otherwise provided in this section, if the
93 | personal representative is a member of The Florida Bar and has
94 | rendered legal services in connection with the administration of
95 | the estate, then in addition to a fee as personal
96 | representative, there also shall be allowed a fee for the legal
97 | services rendered.

98 |       (8) (a) An attorney serving as a personal representative,
99 | or a person related to the attorney, is not entitled to
100 | compensation for serving as a personal representative if the

101 attorney prepared or supervised the execution of the will that 102 nominated the attorney or person related to the attorney as 103 personal representative, unless the attorney or person nominated
104 is related to the testator, or the attorney makes the following
105 disclosures to the testator before the will is executed:

106 1. Subject to certain statutory limitations, most family
107 members, regardless of their residence, and any other persons
108 who are residents of Florida, including friends and corporate 109 fiduciaries, are eligible to serve as a personal representative;

110 2. Any person, including an attorney, who serves as a
111 personal representative is entitled to receive reasonable 112 compensation for serving as a personal representative; and 113 3. Compensation payable to the personal representative is 114 in addition to any attorney fees payable to the attorney or the 115 attorney's firm for legal services rendered to the personal 116 representative.

117 (b)1. The testator must execute a written statement
118 acknowledging that the disclosures required under paragraph (a)
119 were made prior to the execution of the will. The written 120 statement must be in a separate writing from the will but may be 121 annexed to the will. The written statement may be executed
122 before or after the execution of the will in which the attorney
123 or related person is nominated as the personal representative.

124 2. The written statement must be in substantially the

I, ...(Name)..., declare that:

I have designated my attorney, an attorney employed in the same law firm as my attorney, or a person related to my attorney as a nominated personal representative in my will or codicil dated ...(insert date)....

Before executing the will or codicil, I was informed that:

1. Subject to certain statutory limitations, most family members, regardless of their residence, and any other individuals who are residents of Florida, including friends and corporate fiduciaries, are eligible to serve as a personal representative.

2. Any person, including an attorney, who serves as a personal representative is entitled to receive reasonable compensation for serving as a personal representative.

3. Compensation payable to the personal representative is in addition to any attorney fees payable to the attorney or the attorney's firm for legal services rendered to the personal representative.

(c) For purposes of this subsection:

1. An attorney is deemed to have prepared or supervised the execution of a will if the preparation or supervision of the execution of the will was performed by an employee or attorney employed by the same firm as the attorney at the time the will was executed.

2. A person is "related" to an individual if, at the time the attorney prepared or supervised the execution of the will, the person is:

a. A spouse of the individual;

b. A lineal ascendant or descendant of the individual;

c. A sibling of the individual;

d. A relative of the individual or of the individual's spouse with whom the attorney maintains a close, familial relationship;

e. A spouse of a person described in subparagraphs b.-d.;

f. A person who cohabitates with the individual; or

g. An employee or attorney employed by the same firm as the attorney at the time the will is executed.

3. An attorney or a person related to the attorney is deemed to have been nominated in the will when the will nominates the attorney or the person related to the attorney as personal representative, co-personal representative, successor, or alternate personal representative in the event another person

176 nominated is unable to or unwilling to serve, or provides the 177 attorney or any person related to the attorney with the power to 178 nominate the personal representative and the attorney or person
179 related to attorney was nominated using that power.

180 (d) Other than compensation payable to the personal 181 representative, this subsection does not limit any rights or 182 remedies that any interested person may have at law or in 183 equity.

184 (e) The failure to obtain an acknowledgment from the 185 testator under this subsection does not disqualify a personal 186 representative from serving and does not affect the validity of 187 a will.

188 (f) This subsection applies to all nominations made 189 pursuant to a will:

190 1. Executed by a resident of this state on or after 191 October 1, 2019; or

192 2. Republished by a resident of this state on or after 193 October 1, 2019, if the republished will nominates the attorney
194 who prepared or supervised the execution of the instrument that 195 republished the will, or a person related to such attorney, as 196 personal representative.

197 Section 6. Subsection (4) is added to section 736.0708,
198 Florida Statutes, to read:

199 736.0708 Compensation of trustee.—

200 (4) (a) An attorney serving as a trustee or a person

201 related to such attorney is not entitled to compensation for 202 servng as trustee if the attorney prepared or supervised the 203 execution of the trust instrument that appointed the attorney or 204 person related to the attorney as trustee, unless the attorney
205 or person appointed is related to the settlor or the attorney
206 makes the following disclosures to the settlor before the trust
207 instrument is executed:

208 1. Unless specifically disqualified by the terms of the
209 trust instrument, any person, regardless of state of residence
210 and including a family member, friend, or corporate fiduciary,
211 is eligible to serve as a trustee;

212 2. Any person, including an attorney, who serves as a
213 trustee is entitled to receive reasonable compensation for 214 servng as trustee; and

215 3. Compensation payable to the trustee is in addition to
216 any attorney fees payable to the attorney or the attorney's firm
217 for legal services rendered to the trustee.

218 (b)1. The settlor must execute a written statement
219 acknowledging that the disclosures required under paragraph (a)
220 were made prior to the execution of the trust instrument. The 221 written statement must be in a separate writing from the trust
222 instrument but may be annexed to the trust instrument. The 223 written statement may be executed before or after the execution
224 of the trust in which the attorney or related person is 225 appointed as the trustee.

226 2. The written statement must be in substantially the 227 following form:

228
 229 I, ...(Name)..., declare that:
 230

231 I have designated my attorney, an attorney employed in the 232 same law firm as my attorney, or a person related to my attorney
 233 as a trustee in my trust instrument dated ...(insert date)....
 234

235 Before executing the trust, I was informed that:

236 1. Unless specifically disqualified by the terms of the
 237 trust instrument, any person, regardless of state of residence
 238 and including family members, friends, and corporate 239 fiduciaries, is eligible to serve as a trustee.

240 2. Any person, including an attorney, who serves as a
 241 trustee is entitled to receive reasonable compensation for 242 servng as trustee.

243 3. Compensation payable to the trustee is in addition to
 244 any attorney fees payable to the attorney or the attorney's firm
 245 for legal services rendered to the trustee.

251        (c) For purposes of this subsection:

252        1. An attorney is deemed to have prepared, or supervised

253 the execution of, a trust instrument if the preparation, or

254 supervision of the execution, of the trust instrument was

255 performed by an employee or attorney employed by the same firm

256 as the attorney at the time the trust instrument was executed.

257        2. A person is "related" to an individual if, at the time

258 the attorney prepared or supervised the execution of the trust

259 instrument, the person is:

260            a. A spouse of the individual;

261            b. A lineal ascendant or descendant of the individual;

262            c. A sibling of the individual;

263            d. A relative of the individual or of the individual's

264 spouse with whom the attorney maintains a close, familial

265 relationship;

266            e. A spouse of a person described in subparagraphs b.-d.;

267            f. A person who cohabitates with the individual; or

268            g. An employee or attorney employed by the same firm as 269 the attorney at the time the trust instrument is executed.

270        3. An attorney or a person related to the attorney is

271 deemed appointed in the trust instrument when the trust

272 instrument appoints the attorney or the person related to the

273 attorney as trustee, co-trustee, successor, or alternate trustee

274 in the event another person nominated is unable to or unwilling

275 to serve, or provides the attorney or any person related to the

276 attorney with the power to appoint the trustee and the attorney
277 or person related to attorney was appointed using that power.

278 (d) Other than compensation payable to the trustee, this 279 subsection does not limit any rights or remedies that any 280 interested person may have at law or equity.

281 (e) The failure to obtain an acknowledgment from the 282 settlor under this subsection does not disqualify a trustee from 283 serving and does not affect the validity of a trust instrument.

284 (f) This subsection applies to all appointments made
285 pursuant to a trust agreement:

286 1. Executed by a resident of this state on or after 287 October 1, 2019; or

288 2. Amended by a resident of this state on or after October 289 1, 2019, if the trust agreement nominates the attorney who 290 prepared or supervised the execution of the amendment or a 291 person related to such attorney as trustee.

292 Section 7. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this 293 act and except for this section, which shall take effect upon 294 this act becoming a law, this act shall take effect October 1, 295 2019.
