I. Summary:

SB 176 provides an exemption to the sales tax for the purchase of certain items that would assist individuals in living and aging independently in their homes. Specifically, bed transfer handles, handrails, bed rails, grab bars, and shower seats would be covered by the exemption. The bill also provides that the Department of Revenue (the department or DOR) may develop rules to administer the exemption.

The fiscal impact on the state is indeterminate, but would reduce sales tax collections deposited in the General Revenue Fund. The bill has an effective date of July 1, 2019.

II. Present Situation:

Florida Sales and Use Tax

Florida levies a six percent sales and use tax on the sale or rental of most tangible personal property, admissions,¹ transient rentals,² rental of commercial real estate,³ and a limited number of services. Chapter 212, F.S., contains statutory provisions authorizing the levy and collection of Florida's sales and use tax, as well as the exemptions and credits applicable to certain items or uses under specified circumstances. There are currently more than 260 exemptions, exclusions, deductions, and credits from the sales and use tax.⁴ Sales tax is added to the price of the taxable good or service and collected from the purchaser at the time of sale.⁵

In addition to the state tax, s. 212.055, F.S., authorizes counties to impose nine local discretionary sales surtaxes. A surtax applies to “all transactions occurring in the county which transactions are subject to the state tax imposed on sales, use, services, rental, admissions, and other transactions by [ch. 212, F.S.], and on communications services as defined in ch. 202, F.S.”⁶ The discretionary sales surtax is based on the tax rate imposed by the county where the taxable goods or services are sold, or are delivered into. Discretionary sales surtax rates currently levied vary by county in a range from 0.5 percent to 1.5.⁷

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 amends s. 212.08, F.S., to add a new exemption from the sales and use tax. The bill would exempt items that enable a person to age in place and live independently in their home. Bed transfer handles, handrails, bed rails, grab bars, and shower seats would be exempt from the state and local sales tax. The bill authorizes the department to adopt rules to administer the exemption.

Section 2 provides an effective date of July 1, 2019.
