146 ~~39.523~~, an approved relative or nonrelative with whom a child is 147 placed pursuant to s. 39.402, preadoptive parents for whom a
148 favorable preliminary adoptive home study has been conducted, 149 adoptive parents, or an adoption entity acting on behalf of 150 preadoptive or adoptive parents.

151 (5) The department may not release the name of, or other
152 identifying information with respect to, any person reporting 153 child abuse, abandonment, or neglect ~~may not be released~~ to any 154 person other than employees of the department responsible for 155 child protective services, the central abuse hotline, law
156 enforcement, the child protection team, or the appropriate state
157 attorney, without the written consent of the person reporting.
158 This does not prohibit the subpoenaing of a person reporting
159 child abuse, abandonment, or neglect when deemed necessary by 160 the court, the state attorney, or the department, provided the 161 fact that such person made the report is not disclosed. Any 162 person who reports a case of child abuse or neglect may, at the 163 time he or she makes the report, request that the department
164 notify him or her that a child protective investigation occurred
165 as a result of the report. Any person specifically listed in s.
166 39.201(1) who makes a report in his or her official capacity may 167 also request a written summary of the outcome of the 168 investigation. The department shall mail such a notice to the 169 reporter within 10 days after completing the child protective 170 investigation.

171 (9) The expansion of the public records exemption under 172 this section to include other identifying information with 173 respect to any person reporting child abuse, abandonment, or 174 neglect is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in

2019318er

175 accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on October 2, 176 2024, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment
177 by the Legislature. If the expansion of the exemption is not 178 saved from repeal, this section shall revert to that in 179 existence on June 30, 2019, except that any other amendments 180 made to this section, other than by this act, are preserved and 181 continue to operate to the extent that such amendments are not 182 dependent upon the portions of text that expire under this 183 subsection.

184 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public
185 necessity to strengthen reporter-status protection by making all 186 reporter identifying information exempt from s. 119.07(1),
187 Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the State 188 Constitution. The current statutory scheme only protects the 189 name of the reporter who calls into the abuse hotline. By 190 protecting only the name of the reporter of child abuse, 191 abandonment, or neglect, the identity of the individual may be 192 discerned by other identifying information, thus rendering the 193 protection ineffective. Providing robust protections to 194 reporters of child abuse, abandonment, or neglect improves the 195 mandatory reporting scheme by ensuring that all instances of 196 suspected child abuse, abandonment, or neglect are reported to 197 the Department of Children and Families. Therefore, it is 198 necessary that individuals who are considered reporters under 199 the current statutory scheme have their identifying information
200 protected.

201 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2019.
