FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation

With the approval of its district board of trustees, a Florida College System (FCS) institution may change the name of the institution as listed in s. 1000.21(3), F.S., and use the designation “college” or “state college” if it has been authorized to grant baccalaureate degrees and has been accredited as a baccalaureate-degree-granting institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC).¹ A district board of trustees that approves the use of the designation “college” or “state college” must seek statutory codification of the name change during the next regular legislative session.²

Florida Keys Community College has met the statutory requirements for a name change.³ On January 6, 2016, the State Board of Education (SBE) unanimously approved Florida Keys Community College’s proposal to offer its first baccalaureate degree.⁴ On December 4, 2016, the SACSCOC accredited the college to offer the Bachelor of Applied Science in Supervision and Management effective January 2017.⁵

North Florida Community College has met the statutory requirements for a name change.⁶ On September 23, 2016, the SBE unanimously approved North Florida Community College’s proposal to offer its first baccalaureate degree.⁷ On June 15, 2017, the SACSCOC accredited the college to offer the Bachelor of Science in Nursing effective August 2017.⁸

As required by statute, both colleges sought statutory codification of the name change during the 2018 Legislative Session. The proposed legislation unanimously passed the House, but died in the Senate Education Committee.

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill amends s. 1000.21(3)(h), F.S., changing the name of “Florida Keys Community College” to “College of the Florida Keys.” Also, the bill amends s. 1000.21(3)(p), F.S., changing the name of “North
