24 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
25

26 Section 1. Section 287.0921, Florida Statutes, is created
27 to read:

28 287.0921 Equal pay certification for vendors; bid
29 preference.-

30 (1) Within the limits of available resources, the 31 department shall establish a program to certify vendors that pay
32 their employees equal pay for equal work without regard to 33 gender.

34 (2) The department shall adopt rules to implement and 35 administer the certification program. At a minimum, the rules
36 must include:

37 (a) A method for a vendor to self-certify that the vendor
38 pays its employees equal pay for equal work without regard to
39 gender.

40 (b) The manner of certification by the Secretary of 41 Management Services of a vendor that fulfills the requirements
42 of self-certification.

43 (3) If the secretary certifies a vendor in accordance with 44 the rules adopted pursuant to subsection (2):

45 (a) The department must include the vendor's certified
46 status in records concerning the vendor which are held by the 47 department or made available on the department's website.

48 (b) The vendor may acknowledge its certification in its 49 advertising, marketing, or other promotional materials.

50 (4) (a) If the department determines that a vendor has made

51 a material misrepresentation or otherwise committed a fraudulent
52 act in self-certifying in accordance with the rules adopted
53 pursuant to subsection (2), the vendor may be prohibited, for a
54 period of up to 36 months, from:

55 1. Self-certifying that the vendor pays its employees
56 equal pay for equal work without regard to gender; and

57 2. Submitting a bid or proposal to an agency.

58 (b) The vendor may, under chapter 120, seek administrative 59 review of the department's determination made pursuant to 60 paragraph (a).

61 (5) If an agency is required to make purchases of personal
62 property through competitive solicitation, a bid or proposal
63 submitted by a vendor who is certified in accordance with 64 subsection (2) must be granted a preference of 5 percent if:

65 (a) Two or more of the lowest bids or proposals are within 66 5 percent of each other;

67 (b) None of the bids or proposals are submitted by a
68 vendor whose principal place of business is within this state;
69 and

70 (c) One or more of the lowest bids or proposals is 71 submitted by a vendor who is certified by the Secretary of 72 Management Services in accordance with subsection (2).

73 (6) On or before October 1 of each year, the department
74 shall submit a report to the Governor, the President of the 75 Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives which

76 includes, for the immediately preceding fiscal year:

77 (a) The number of vendors certified pursuant to subsection
78 (2).

79 (b) The number of certified vendors that submitted a bid
80 or proposal to an agency.

81 (c) The number of certified vendors that were awarded a
82 contract by an agency.

83 (d) The number of certified vendors that were disciplined
84 pursuant to subsection (4).

85 (7) In carrying out the provisions of this section, the 86 department may cooperate and coordinate with the Department of 87 Economic Opportunity, the Florida Commission on Human Relations,
88 the Florida Commission on the Status of Women, and any other
89 office, department, board, commission, or agency of state
90 government that has appropriate expertise.

91 (8) This section does not apply to any state contract that
92 is advertised, bid, offered, or awarded before January 1, 2020.

93 Section 2. Effective upon this act becoming a law, the 94 Department of Management Services may initiate rulemaking for
95 purposes of implementing and administering the equal pay
96 certification program established in s. 287.0921, Florida
97 Statutes, as created by this act.

98 Section 3. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this
99 act and except for this section, which shall take effect upon
100 becoming a law, this act shall take effect January 1, 2020.
