SUMMARY ANALYSIS

HB 7043 passed the House on March 21, 2019, as SB 6.

The bill is a general reviser's bill that deletes statutory provisions that have been repealed by a non-current (past-year) session of the Legislature where that repeal or expiration date has now occurred, rendering the provision of no effect. Such provisions may be omitted from publication in the 2019 Florida Statutes only through a reviser's bill duly enacted by the Legislature.

The bill has no fiscal impact.

The bill was approved by the Governor on April 3, 2019, ch. 2019-4, L.O.F., and becomes effective July 3, 2019.
