Senator Broxson moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 63 and 64

insert:

(d) A health insurer, life insurer, or long-term care insurer may not obtain, directly or indirectly, personally identifiable health information that is in, or the result of, any direct-to-consumer genetic test.

(e) This section may not be construed as prohibiting a life insurer from accessing an individual's medical record as part of an application examination. This section does not prohibit a

12 life insurer from considering and using an individual's medical 13 record, even if the medical record contains the results of a
14 genetic test.

15 Section 2. Unless reviewed and saved from repeal through
16 reenactment by the Legislature, the amendment made by this act
17 to s. 627.4301, Florida Statutes, expires July 1, 2021, and the 18 text of that section shall revert to that in existence on June 19 30, 2019, except that any amendments to such text enacted other 20 than by this act shall be preserved and continue to operate to 21 the extent that such amendments are not dependent upon the 22 portions of text which expire pursuant to this section.
