Senator Bean moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 63 and 64

insert:

(d) A health insurer, life insurer, or long-term care insurer may not obtain, directly or indirectly, personally identifiable health information that is in, or the result of, any direct-to-consumer genetic test.

(e) This section may not be construed as prohibiting a life insurer from accessing an individual's medical record as part of an application examination. This section does not prohibit a

12 life insurer from considering and using an individual's medical 13 record, even if the medical record contains the results of a
14 genetic test. However, a life insurer may only consider and use
15 genetic information contained in an individual's medical record
16 in accordance with paragraph (a).

17 Section 2. Unless reviewed and saved from repeal through
18 reenactment by the Legislature, the amendment made by this act
19 to s. 627.4301, Florida Statutes, expires July 1, 2021, and the 20 text of that section shall revert to that in existence on June 21 30, 2019, except that any amendments to such text enacted other
22 than by this act shall be preserved and continue to operate to 23 the extent that such amendments are not dependent upon the 24 portions of text which expire pursuant to this section.
