Amendment No.

14 capacity within the reasonable and prudent scope of his or her 15 authority; or

16 (d) Prohibit a court of competent jurisdiction from 17 issuing an order that is otherwise authorized by law.

18 (3) An employee of the state, any of its political 19 subdivisions, or any other governmental entity who encourages or 20 coerces, or attempts to encourage or coerce, a minor child to 21 withhold information from his or her parent may be subject to 22 disciplinary action.

23 (4) A parent of a minor child in this state has 24 inalienable rights that are more comprehensive than those listed 25 in this section, unless such rights have been legally waived or 26 terminated. This chapter does not prescribe all rights to a
27 parent of a minor child in this state. Unless required by law, 28 the rights of a parent of a minor child in this state may not be 29 limited or denied. This chapter may not be construed to apply to 30 a parental action or decision that would end life or endanger 31 the health, safety, or well-being of the minor child.
